Department of War/ Bounty Land Office/ Jan'y 22d 1840

Sir [Hon'e John Reynolds/ Ho. of Rep'ts] Yours addressed to the Secretary of War, and covering the enclosed letter of Mr. John Dougherty, was referred to this Office on the 15th ins't, and in reply to the inquiry relative to Gasper Butcher, I have the honor to inform you that, his name appears on an Official return of the Soldiers of the "Illinois Regiment, and North Western Army commanded by Gen'l Geo. R. Clarke," as being entitled to bounty land from the State of Virginia, which return was made to the Executive of that State, by its Commissioner appointed to investigate Revolutionary claims; the case is therefore referable solely to the authorities of said state. The troops under the command of Gen'l. Clarke, were not on the Continental Establishment of Virginia, and were not, of course, embraced by the Resolutions of Congress granting bounty lands. Congress, having made no provision in Scife[?], or otherwise, since the Act of March 3^d 1835, for satisfying the Warrants issued by the State of Virginia to her Officers and Soldiers, and the appropriations of land under that Act, being exhausted, those in possession, as well as those reported to be entitled to such Warrants, must, necessarily, await the further favourable legislation of that body, before they can obtain anything.

Very Respectfully/ Your Obt Servt/ Wm Gordon
