LT FRANCIS WHITING'S DETACHMENT FROM COL CHARLES MYNN THRUSTON'S VIRGINIA REGIMENT, 4 MAY 1778

Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris

[Colonel Charles Mynn Thruston's Additional Continental Regiment was created in Jan 1777 but never entirely filled. After Thruston was wounded in a skirmish on the following March 8, enlistments lagged. What remained of the regiment participated at the Battle of Monmouth on 28 June 1778, and on 1 Jan 1779 it was transferred to Col. Nathaniel Gist's Additional Continental Regiment.

The Lt. Francis Whiting mentioned below may be the one who applied to Virginia for bounty land and a pension (VAS454).
