On this 23rd day of October 1832, personally appeared in open Court before William H. Crawford Judge of the Superior Court now sitting Peter Trammel Senior, a resident of Lincoln County & said State aged Seventy five years the 13th day of this Instant, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated; Some time in the year 1775 or '76, deponent can't recollect which he volunteered in Captain Benjamin Few's Company on an eighteen months tour at Hillsborough in the State of North Carolina near to which he was born & raised, and was commanded at the time by General McIntosh who marched them immediately to Georgia, he furnished his own horse and lost during that servitude two horses, he served the eighteen months, and was discharged at Beard's Bluff, during that servitude he was at the building of a Fort on Ogeechee [River], and at various times on scouting parties against the Indians at one time pursuing in the direction of Florida and were prevented by the difficulties of the Swamps from the pursuit, and at that time lost one of his horses. After he is discharge deponent returned to North Carolina and remained he thinks eight or ten months, and returned again to Georgia, and at the House of Col Chandler in that section of Country now Columbia County he enlisted as well as he recollects in Captain Forsyth's company under the immediate command of General Lincoln [Benjamin Lincoln] for five years, and marched immediately to Savannah. During the enlistment he drove a Baggage Wagon three years, was twice at Sieges of Augusta, was occasionally stationed at various times & places, but in no general engagement and the times, he was stationed at different times at Purrysburg, Beard's Bluff, at the Sisters' ferry, when not on a tour for immediate supplies or to aid in express command on scouting parties; was regularly discharged at the end of his servitude, soon after which he volunteered in the militia service in deponent's brother's Dennis Trammel's Company and directly was compelled to retreat over the mountains with Col. Elijah Clark [sic, Elijah Clarke] from the British & Tories whose force to was too great to meet by so feeble a Band, and was directly after marched to King's Mountain & fought through that battle having a Brother wounded in the engagement and was one of the soldiers [who] attended the prisoners to Cain [sic, Cane] Creek and returned again to South Carolina to the Battle at the Cowpens with Tarlton [sic, Banastre Tarleton]: was in that engagement and shortly after was in the engagement at Hogskin's Mills with Dunlap and continued during the emergencies and trials in Georgia and South Carolina so long as to his services was required it being more safe in service than at home and at the various engagements and duties his brother's Company in which he belonged was commanded by Col Clarke, Col Brannon [sic, Thomas Brandon], Col Fair [sic, William Farr] and Col Campbell [William Campbell].

Deponent further swears that he has no documentary Evidence by which he can prove his Service, nor does he know of any living Soldier by whom he can prove the same, his last account's from his brother Dennis Trammel¹ he was alive living in the Western Country but it is many years since and he does not know that he is living, that he deponent is a very poor man, has lost his discharges and not capable of keeping account or remembering dates satisfactorily and consequently was advised to leave out the dates for want of certainty.

Deponent further swears he never has been pensioned by the Government and hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present.
