[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

[fn p. 5: Copy of the veteran's obituary]

Died} – At his seat (Spring Grove) in the County of Hanover, on the morning of the 21st ult. General Thomas White in the 67th year of his age, after a severe illness of twelve days, occasioned by a fall from a high pair of steps, which he bore with uncommon fortitude, leaving a disconsolate widow and nine children to bemoan his irreparable loss. He was an affectionate husband, a tender parent, a kind neighbor and an indulgent master. Thus has the last enemy cut off from the social intercourse of life, one whose services for more than forty years was devoted in a great degree to the public service of his country, commencing at an early age as a Captain in the military department of the state, and continued in a regular promotion, until he attained the rank of Brigadier General, in which station he discharged the duties for about 12 years with promptitude, at the close of which time, experiencing an almost unexampled increase of flesh which rendered him too inactive to discharge the duties of that office longer with ease to himself.

He represented his County at the most critical and trying times in the history of his country, in the General Assembly of Virginia, and as a magistrate from the earliest years of maturity until the close of his life, he lived and died a most inflexible republican: in fine [?], the deceased was a true patriot; for at the early age of seventeen years, he embarked as a volunteer in our Revolutionary struggle, and was an active participator in the closing scenes at York-Town, which resulted as gloriously in the emancipation of our country from British tyranny and oppression.

He was a true believer in the Christian faith though not attached to any particular denomination. He said to his family a few moments before his departure, with the most cool philosophy, that he was prepared to meet his fate – then turned over on his left side as though in a sweet sleep, and breathe his last, without a struggle.

I do hereby state that I was well acquainted with the late General Thomas White of the County of Hanover. He was a Lieutenant in one of the Virginia State regiments, I do not recollect which – he became a supernumerary, and continued as such I believe, indeed I have no doubt of it, until the end of the war. I knew him well.
