[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Also, the handwriting of the original scribes often lends itself to varying interpretations. Users of this database are urged to view the original and to make their own decision as to how to decipher what the original scribe actually wrote. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those and any other errors to my attention.]

State of South Carolina District of Pickens: SS

On this third day of December 1845, personally appeared before William D Steele Judge of the Court of Ordinary for the District & State aforesaid, Mrs. Rachel Biecknell of the District & State aforesaid, aged eighty-eight years the 12th Instant, (and who said Ordinary certifies is unable by bodily infirmity to attend in open Court) who being 1st duly sworn according to law, doth on her oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the 3rd section of the Act of Congress of the 4th of July 1836.

That she is the widow of Thomas Biecknell was a private and Lieutenant in the war of the Revolution, that she was married to the said Thomas Bricknell when in her seventeenth year, and she thinks when she had three children, her said husband entered the service under Captain Richard Allen, who was afterwards, Colonel, that they then resided in Wilkes County North Carolina and her said husband there entered the first time, and was not much at home until the close of the war, that he was at one time a volunteer & at other times drafted, and was a considerable portion of the time a Lieutenant, that she is sure he was a Lieutenant under Captain Allen at the siege at Charleston, that he marched much through North & South Carolina, and served at various times under Captain Lanore [sic, William Lenoir], Colonel Cleveland [Benjamin Cleveland] & Colonel Hearne [sic, probably Benjamin Hearn], but it is impossible for her to state the particulars of his service at her advanced age.

That her husband the said Thomas Biecknell was wounded with an ounce ball in his hip in the Battle at Kings Mountain, with which wound he died, he was carried to Burke County near Morganton, to the house of Mrs. Bowman, where declarant went and waited upon him with his wound eleven weeks, at the end of which time he died. She does not know of any documentary evidence, or any evidence of any kind that she can certainly get to prove his services, but thinks an indent may have been issued to her for his services, and she recollects to have tried to get something, & thinks she did get a small sum, but does not know how.

That she was married to the said Thomas Biecknell in Wilkes County North Carolina by Squire Riggs, and she believes on the 22nd of October, as she thinks, in the year 1774, as she had three children when her husband entered the service, and when his service closed entirely she had five children and four months & fifteen days after his death her sixth child, Mary, was born, her said daughter Mary married David Roper, and she now lives with her, and on their charity.

She has no record of her marriage, nor of the births of her children, they were published in church as the custom was in those days to be married, that her husband the aforesaid Thomas Biecknell died on the 31st day of December 1780, and that she has remained a widow ever since that period, as will more fully appear by reference to the proof herewith forwarded.
