I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those and any other errors to my attention.]

State of Pennsylvania County of Westmoreland

On this 18th day of April A.D. 1854 Personally appeared in open Court, before the Court of Common Pleas of Westmorland County, now sitting George H. Brown, Executor of Robert Brown deceased a resident of Westmorland County and State aforesaid aged forty-four years or thereabouts who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain for himself and the other children of the said Robert Brown deceased the arrears of Pension which the said Robert Brown would have been entitled to draw at and immediately before the time of his death if he had applied for the same. The said Robert Brown was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. That he entered the service about the commencement of the Revolutionary war under Colonel Neel -- don't know the name of his Captain. The Regiment was commanded by General Williamson -- don't remember his first name that he continued from the time he entered the service in the service until after the capture of Cornwallis the British General. He was for five years of this period of his service under General Sumpter during part of the time he served under General Sumpter his Captain was William Hill. He was in Charleston when it was besieged by the British Army. He was in the Battle of Rocky Mount in the southern war. He resided in South Carolina when he entered the service near Briar Creek. He went out first as a substitute in the place of Robert Huey after he had fulfilled Huey's period of service he was drafted in South Carolina at the same place he first entered the service. His campaigns were principally through South Carolina North Carolina and Georgia. He was acquainted in the Service with a Major Ross I have often heard him talk about -- I have no documentary evidence of his service and know of no one whom I can procure to testify to his service. That the said Robert Brown died on the 21st of April A.D. 1845 in Fairfield Township Westmoreland County State of Pennsylvania. He left South Carolina shortly after the close of the war and settled first in Cumberland County Pennsylvania and afterwards removed to Cambria County in Pennsylvania and removed from Cambria County to Westmoreland County as early as 1798 where he continued to reside until the time of his death on the 21st of April 1845. That he never applied for a pension nor Bounty land. That he don't know whether he got a discharge or not Heard him say that he is discharge was burnt in a house in South Carolina. That he was married in 1785 or 1786 two Margaret Hendricks in Cumberland County Pennsylvania that she died in the year 1810 in November in Westmoreland County Pennsylvania. That he left at the time of his deceased in 1845 eight children living to wit William, Mary, Robert, Margaret intermarried with William Matthers [could be Matthews], James, Sarah, Thomas & George H. Brown the declarant. That there is none of the children dead leaving children -- That they all reside in Westmoreland County except Robert who resides in Iowa. James & Margaret in Crawford County Pennsylvania and Thomas in Indiana County Pennsylvania.
