[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of Tennessee Monroe County: SS

On this 8th day of April 1845 personally appeared before me Alexander Sloan an acting Justice of the peace, and one of the Justices of the County Court of said County, Hannah Clayton, a resident of the County and State aforesaid now in the 76th year of her age, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on her oath, make the following Declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed the 7th July 1838, entitled "An act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows," (and an act approved the 23rd day of August 1842, amendatory thereof, and a resolution approved the 16th day of August 1842, entitled, A resolution declarative of the Pension Acts of July 7th 1838) and the act of the 3rd of March 1843 granting one year's pay and pensions to certain widows, and the act of the 17th of June 1844, continuing certain persons on the Pension roll four years longer; that she is the widow of John Clayton who was a Lieutenant in a company of South Carolina State Troops under the command of Captain Motley of Greenville District, and in a Regiment commanded by Colonel ___ Earl [Earle] of said District; her husband the said John Clayton entered his Country's Service soon after the commencement of the Revolutionary War to wit early in the year 1776 and continued in service, at different times, as in his lifetime he has often related to the said Hannah Clayton, until after the capture of Cornwallis in the fall of 1781 and she verily believes that her husband served as aforesaid in said company and Regiment, at different periods more than two years, between the date of his entering this service and his leaving it, and that she relies on her late husband's statements to her in his lifetime for the truth of her declaration that his service was principally rendered in the Carolinas and mostly in the country immediately around Earle's Fort on North Pacolet River; that owing to her great loss of memory and infirmities of age, she is unable to name any other officers with whom her husband served, or to relate minutely the particular incidents of his service she has heard him rehearse, or to state the Countries through which he marched or the engagement or skirmishes he was in, but that she remembers to have heard him say that he was in active service during the 2nd invasion of the Carolinas by the British in the year 1780 and 1781; that she knows of no living witness by whom she can prove the service of her husband, nor has she any written or documentary evidence in her possession to establish the fact; that about the year 1809 her husband's mill on War Creek in Hawkins County Tennessee where he then resided, was washed away, and all his books and papers being in the mill, including the evidence of his service in the Revolutionary war, were lost and destroyed. She further declares that she was married to the said John Clayton on the ___ day of ___ in the year 1788, in Greenville District, South Carolina; that her husband the aforesaid John Clayton died on the 15th of November 1828 then aged about 94 years; that she was not married to him prior to his leaving the service, but that the marriage took place previous to the first day of January 1794 to wit, at the time above stated.

Sworn to and subscribed on the day and year above written before me.

S/ Alex Sloan
