In order to obtain the benefit of the 3<sup>d</sup> Section of the act of Congress of the 4th of July 1836. – On this 27th day of June 1837. Frances Baker, widow of Richard Baker the elder a resident of the city and State aforesaid, aged 67 years, who being first, duly sworn according to law, doth on her oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed

July 4th 1836. That she is the widow of Richard Baker the elder deceased, who she believes enlisted for, and served under Captain Joseph Scott, three years as a private in the War of the revolution. he then enlisted for the War, in the Cavalry and served to the end of said war, in Blands [Theodorick Bland's], afterwards Colonel William Washington's Regiment, and was wounded in one of his legs by a fall from his horse, when the horse was shot under him and killed. He served two tours in the Militia in the last war [of 1812], as a substitute, the first at Norfolk for three months under Captain Anthony Turner, and the second at Camp Holley under the command of Captain Samuel Jones for nine months, my husband was placed upon the pension list at eight dollars per months, and drew his money to the period of his death, which happened on the 3<sup>d</sup> day of December 1827. He left two children, a son Richard who was of lawful age, and a daughter Elizabeth, who was under the age of sixteen years old when her father died. She further declares that she was lawfully married to the said Richard Baker in the month of July 1810 and that he died on the 3<sup>d</sup> day of December 1827 as above stated, and that she yet remains his widow, having not been married since his death, she presumes his papers are filed in the pension office and by reference to them you will probably obtain more satisfactory information than it is in my power to give or furnish.
