[fn p. 2, copy of marriage bond dated May 7, 1785, given in Orange County, NC, by Drury Johnson and Thomas Brown to secure the marriage of Johnson to Rody Cole.]

[On February 27, 1845, in Guilford County, NC, Sarah Cate, 75, gave testimony that she is the sister of Rhoda Johnson, widow of Drury Johnson, who resides in Orange County, NC; that her sister is the widow of Drury Johnson; that she, Sarah, was present at their marriage in 1785 by James Carrington, JP.]

North Carolina, Orange County

On this the 28th day of November 1844, personally appeared before the undersigned one of the Justices of the Court, of pleas and quarter sessions for said County, Rhoda Johnson, a resident of said County aged 82 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, maketh the declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed 7th July 1838.

That she is the widow of the late Drewry Johnson, who during the War of the Revolution (as this Declarant has reason to believe & does believe) did serve the United States, as a private of Infantry in the Militia, after her marriage with the said Drury Johnson.

1st The said Rhoda Johnson has reason to believe and does believe that in the fall of 1778, there was a draft for 5 months Militia man, to serve the United States in the War of the Revolution, when this Declarant's husband, the aforesaid Drewry Johnson, was drafted to Serve in said tour, was marched from the Town of Hillsboro in the aforesaid County, to Salisbury, thence to Charlotte, thence to Rutherford's Camp in South Carolina and at the Cheraw Hills, was discharged & returned home, and in the foregoing tour was, she believes in a legally organized Corps.

2. This Declarant has reason to believe and does believe that in the fall of 1781, immediately after the Town of Hillsboro was captured by Colonel Fanning, September 1781. This Declarant's husband did volunteer for a Tour in the militia under Captain Hodges, Tinnin Colonel: in Butler Brigadier General -- the object in raising the troops was to rescue the Governor & the Troops which the Tories had surprised & captured in Hillsboro -- In this tour the troops were marched to near Wilmington & after remaining some time on the Cape Fear [River], returned home about Christmas following -- having been absent in the Army about 3 months & 2 weeks. When he was discharged in the Town of Hillsborough & returned home, and in said tour, was called into the Service by the proper authority.

3rd This Declarant remembers that some time in the early part of the year after the [battle of] Guilford [Court House] her deceased husband did volunteer a 3 months tour under Captain Guinn [Gwinn?] & Colonel O'Neal -- Butler Brigadier General, rendezvoused in the Town of Hillsboro were marched to Randolph, Grassy Island on the [?] and to Cross Creek, now

Fayetteville, thence to Pittsboro & were marched to Hillsboro and discharged by Colonel O'Neal.

In each of the foregoing tours, this Declarant has reason to believe and does believe that her husband was in legally organized Corps & called into Service by Competent authority.

That as regards her Deceased husband's discharges from his tours, she has no knowledge what has become of them.

This Declarant further states that her Deceased husband may have served in other tours; but she does not recollect them -- and as to the foregoing Tours, they are as Correctly as she is enabled to state them, from what her in perfect memory furnishes her, and was she learns from those who were companions of her husband's in the Army.

The said Rhoda Johnson, further sets forth that she was married to the aforesaid Drewry Johnson, to the best of her recollection in the year of 1785, that they were married by James Carrington Esquire and the aforesaid County of Orange as per Copy of her marriage Bond --

That her Deceased husband Drury Johnson died in the year of 1832. That she has not married since, but still remains the widow of the aforesaid Drury Johnson.

That from old age & bodily infirmity is unable to attend to court to make this Declaration.

Sworn to and subscribed the day & year first above written before me.
