Pension application of John Snider R9901 Transcribed by Will Graves f15VA 3/12/12

[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

The State of Ohio County of Champaign: SS

On this 31st day of October A.D. 1834 personally appeared in open court before the judges of the court of common pleas of the County of Champaign aforesaid John Snider a resident of Mad River Township in said County of Champaign aged eighty-four years on the 1st day of September last past, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he was drafted to serve in the militia of the United States in the month of July he thinks in the year 1780. He was drafted for six months and accordingly he entered the service of the United States in the Militia, sometime in the latter part of the month of July in the year 178. At the time he was drafted and entered the service he resided in Shenadoah [Shenandoah] County in the State of Virginia. He was first marched to Winchester in Virginia where he remained during his term of six months in the barracks assisting to guard the Hessians and British prisoners who had been sent there for safekeeping. He thinks his Captain's name was Martin All. He does not remember the name of any other officers. He was not engaged in any battle during this term of service. He was constantly employed in the service at and near Winchester until after Christmas of the same year he entered the service when his term expired and he returned home to his residence in Shanadoa [Shenandoah] County. But he cannot recollect the precise time of his leaving the service. He assumes it was not long after Christmas. He remembers to have seen General Morgan at the Barracks at Winchester. He cannot recollect any other officers of the regular Army.

Again in the next year he was drafted for three months and left his residence in Shanadoa [Shenandoah] County in Virginia and entered the service in the month of September, but what time in the month he cannot recollect. He was marched towards Cornwallis' Army which was then in the lower part of Virginia, but before he arrived at Yorktown Cornwallis had surrendered [October 19, 1781], and on receiving this information, he was discharged and returned home. During this last service he was commanded by Captain Roach. He does not remember the name of any other officer. He cannot remember the precise time of entering or leaving the service in this last tour, but he believes he was in the service at least one month. He does not remember to have received any discharge other than a verbal one. During the last term, his time was spent in marching to and from the direction of Cornwallis' Army and he had arrived several miles below Fredericksburg] when he heard of the surrender of Cornwallis.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency of any State.

He was drafted into the Service.

5th. He cannot state the names of other officers than those mentioned in the body of his declaration. He was not with the regular Army nor did he marched much distance over the Country. He is very much enfeebled by age. He is almost entirely blind and then nearly blind for about 3 years and his memory has almost entirely failed so that he cannot recollect the circumstances of his service with any particularity.

- 6. He has no recollection of ever having received a discharge in writing.
- 7. He is acquainted with the following persons to whom he is known in his present neighborhood & who can testify to his character for veracity and their belief of his services as a Soldier of the Revolution (viz.) William Runkle, Henry Pence, Daniel Beaver and many others. And this applicant further makes oath and says that by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory, he cannot swear positively as to the precise length of his service; but according to the best of his recollection he served not less than the periods mentioned below and in the following grades: for 6 months I served as a private soldier in the militia of the State of Virginia during the revolutionary war for which service I claim a pension.
