[State of Tennessee, Bedford County]

On this 6th day of November in the year of our Lord 1832 personally appeared in open Court before John L Niell, James Philips & John be Armstrong, Esquires gentlemen justices of the peace appointed to hold the court of pleas and quarter Sessions for Bedford County in the State of Tennessee Ford November Term 1832 of said court, now sitting William Bigham a resident of Bedford County and State aforesaid, aged 75 years 8 months and 13 days, who being first duly sworn according to law doth make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed the 7th of June 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated to wit That he entered the service of the United States as a volunteer in a Company commanded by Captain Robert Erwin in Mecklenburg County and State of North Carolina and was marched from that place against the hostile Cherokee Indians, about the first of August 1776, that Captain Erwin's Company was attached to a Regiment commanded by Adam Alexander who was under the command of General Rutherford – he states he was marched to a place called the middle Settlements in the Cherokee nation but the Enemy had all fled, and the Americans set fire to their towns and burned them down and was then marched on to the Valley Towns where the Americans killed one Indian and took some prisoners among them was two white men one by the name of Scott and was marched back home to Mecklenburg County North Carolina where he says he was honorably discharged about the first week of November in the same year after serving a tower of duty of three months. He further states that afterwards to wit soon after the Siege of Charleston he again volunteered under Captain Reed as one of the minute men and was marched in pursuit of Tories on the Yadkin River he states the Tories they were in pursuit of had been routed by another Company of Whigs – he was then marched to Ramsours Mill in Lincoln County in the State of North Carolina and from that place was marched back home and dismissed until further orders. He states that afterwards he was called again in the service under the aforesaid Captain Reed and was marched to a Regiment commanded by Colonel Robert Erwin who was under the Command of General Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] and marched immediately on to the Hanging Rock in South Carolina, deponent states he was in a battle at that place between the Americans commanded by General Sumter and the British and Tories commanded he thinks by an officer of the name of Turnbull, on the 6th day of August 1780 – in which battle he received a wound in his left thigh by a ball passing through it and he was told by Doctor Knox who dressed his wounds, that a small part of the thigh bone was knocked off, he said he was then placed in the Hospital where he remained about five weeks but was not fit for actual Service until after the defeat of Tarleton by General Morgan and his Army, making a term of Service of more than eleven months. He further states that after that he was called into Service by Captain Brownfield who succeeded Captain Reed – Reed having been killed at the battle before mentioned at the hanging Rock, and was marched to the Shallow Ford of the Yadkin River in Rowan County and from that on to Stokes County and from that to Guilford County all in the State of North Carolina and about this time he thinks when they were on the South fork of the Yadkin, that a Proclamation was issued by some officer of the United States stating that, all those who would continue in service six weeks longer it should be good for a tower of three months he says he served out the six weeks and then volunteered for three days with others expecting an engagement between General Greene & Cornwallis, and was afterwards discharged; making a term of service in all seventeen months – and more, but that he only claims a pension for seventeen months actual service, and that he cannot recollect the precise periods of the war when he served.

Interrogatories by the Court

Int. 1st Where and in what year were you born?

Ans. I was born in York County State of Pennsylvania on the 19th day of February in the year 1756, agreeable to my Father's record.

Int. 2nd Have you any record of your age and if so where is it?

Ans. I have a record of my age in my Bible taken from my Father's family Record

Int. 3rd Where were you living when called into service: where have you lived since the Revolutionary War and where do you now live?

Ans. I lived in Mecklenburg County and State of North Carolina all the different times I entered the service of the United States and until after the close of the Revolutionary war. Sometime in the year 1800 or 1801 when I moved to Lincoln County North Carolina and remained there until the year 1816 when I moved to Rutherford County Tennessee and in the year 1817, I moved to Bedford County Tennessee where I have lived ever since and where I now live

Int. 4th How were you called into service; were you drafted; did you volunteer or were you a substitute, and if in substitute, for whom?

Ans. I was a volunteer the whole time of my service –

Int. 5th State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops when you served, such Continental and militia regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

Ans. I cannot recollect any Regular officer but General Green, Gates, and Morgan, I only recollect the Regiments under Generals Rutherford, Sumter, and pass all the troops of General Green but do not recollect the numbers of the Regiments.

Int. 6th Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given and what has become of it?

Ans. I did receive one written discharge but what has become of it I cannot tell – the other times I only received a verbal discharge I think for that I did not think or know it would ever be of any service to make whatever to have a written one

Int. 7th State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief in your services as a soldier in the revolution.

Ans. William Alexander, Abraham Talley, Wm M. Griggor, Josiah Duncan and the Reverend George Newton of Shelbyville

Deponent further states that he has no documentary evidence whatever, and that he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify as to his Services except the accompanying Deposition of Richard Brown; and that he hereby relinquishes all and every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in the United States. Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.
