State of Tennessee Robertson County: Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions August Term 1833

On this the 13th day of August A.D. 1833 personally appeared in open Court before Henry Frey, Robert Green, William C. Coonyod [?] Justices sitting and presiding and holding said Court of Pleas in and for the County of Robertson and State of Tennessee, Thomas McIntosh a resident of the County of Stewart and State of Tennessee aged 78 years who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832.

That he was drafted in the County of Caswell in the State of North Carolina about a year before the Declaration of Independence to go after the Cherokee Indians high upon the Catawba River on Silver Creek at Green Lees an Indian trader. We marched from Caswell to near the Indian towns and heard that the Indians had left their towns and we returned home.

In the first or early part of the month of July in the year 1777 I volunteered in the horse and went under the command of Capt. Sanders -- Major's name is not recollected -- William Moore was the Lt. Col. -- ___ Ramsey was the Col. in command -- we had no General along on this Tour -- there being but one Regiment. The British under the command of Cornwallis were then lying in Hillsboro. We joined Lee with his Legion and went upon Hillsborough -- When we got within 10 miles of that place we ascertained that Tarleton had gone out to meet the Tories of North Carolina. We pursued him and came up with him on the Alamance upon the other side of Hall River from Hillsboro. There we had a skirmish with them -- and defeated them in that skirmish. A British officer (whose name is not recollected) was killed in this skirmish. In this battle or skirmish it is said about 200 men were killed in 10 minutes. One Dr. Piles was at the head of the Tories at that place. After this battle all horses were sent home. The British after this compelled us to retreat about 2 miles and a half from the place where we were encamped at a Tory blacksmith's. I was also with the Army guarding prisoners at Whitsill's mill on Haw River the Reedy branch of said River. We had a skirmish at said Mills. I delivered the prisoners up safe to General Nathaniel Greene after keeping them under guard 3 days and 3 nights. I was then discharged and returned home having served nearly 4 months.

He afterwards sometime in the year 1779 (but the exact times is not remembered) I again volunteered under Capt. Nathaniel Dickerson -- Col. not recollected -- when I first went out in this Campaign I was marched down to Cross Creek after the Tories. After remaining there some time we then marched to a long bridge about 10 miles of Wilmington where we heard of the capture of Cornwallis. General Butler was the commanding officer of this Campaign -- Major Shelby was my Major. Edward Douglass (who was our Adjutant) wrote my discharge. We were after leaving the Bridge and before we were discharged marched to Cobowers Bluff about 5 miles above Wilmington. I served at this tour 6 months. I was born in Culpeper County in the State of Virginia on the Rappahannock [River]. From thence I removed to North Carolina Caswell County when I entered the service. I remained in North Carolina from the close of the war until about 30 years since when I removed to the State of Tennessee, Robertson County where I remained until 10 or 12 years since when I removed to the County of Stewart and the State of Tennessee where I have lived ever since and where I still live.

I have no record evidence of my age, but I believe I was born on the 4th day of December in the year 1754. I never received but one written discharge one written by Douglass -- and that he in removing to the State of Tennessee I lost or have so mislaid it that it cannot now be found. I know of no person by whom I can prove any part of my services, but my two Brothers Charles McIntosh and Nimrod McIntosh both of whom are citizens of the County of Robertson. They are both old and too infirm to go to Stewart County and I have on that account to Robertson County where I can procure their affidavits.

He hereby relinquishes all claim to any pension or annuity whatever except the present and he declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of any Agency in any State.
