State of Georgia, County of Houston

On this 24th day of April in the year of our Lord 1833 personally appeared in open Court before the Honorable Christopher B. Strong Judge of the Superior Court in and for the County aforesaid, now sitting, Hardy Johnson a resident and Citizen of the said State and County, aged in and about 75 years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named Officers, and served as herein stated, to wit, in Wake County in the State of North Carolina, the day and month not recollected, but he thinks about 2 months previous to the Battle of Guilford Court House in said State of North Carolina, this deponent was drafted to serve a 3 months Tour & was mustered in the Company commanded by Captain Thomas Philips, at Raleigh in said County of Wake & proceeded thence to Guilford Court House where the said Company to which the deponent belonged was assigned to the Command of Captain Edward Gwinn who as deponent is informed had been a Captain in the Continental line of North Carolina -- Said Company was attached to the Regiment Commanded by Colonel Taylor (His Christian name not recollected if ever known by deponent) of the Militia under the Command of General Butler -- The Deponent was in the Battle, at Guilford Court House before named, and during the engagement, Colonel Taylor was immediately in the rear of this Deponent, encouraging & urging the Soldiers to fight bravely, which they did do, General Greene on that occasion conducted the operations of the American forces, but more immediately Commanded the Regular Troops -- The deponent recollects General Greene, he was of larger stature then common and his countenance was rather pleasing than otherwise and indicated mildness of temper and disposition. The deponent saw him a few days before said Battle when his passions were very much excited in consequence of one of the Soldiers improperly discharging his musket whereby one of the men was killed, -- on that occasion he acted with a sternness and decision, and seeming determination to punish exemplarily the offender, until he ascertained it was accidental merely. In the early part of the succeeding fall, & after the deponent had accomplished and was discharged from the before mentioned tour, the deponent was again drafted and mustered into service at Raleigh in the said County of Wake North Carolina under the Command of Captain Robert High, and was attached to a Regiment commanded by Colonel Moore and the before named General Butler was the General in Command -- the said Company proceeded towards Wilmington North Carolina & remained in the neighborhood of that City until it was evacuated by the enemy -- The last mentioned Service was a 3 months tour -- The deponent served 2 tours of 3 months each as before mentioned & received regular discharges for the same, -- which discharges have long since been destroyed & cannot be produced by this deponent -- The deponent contributed the sum of $90 in employing two substitutes to serve in the Army of the United States for 2 years & 6 months and was thereby exempted from a draft to himself -- This was some 3 years or about that length of time before the Battle of Guilford Court House -- The circumstances of the aforesaid contribution were these, it was proposed by the then Military Authorities that every 12th man who would employ one Substitute would be exempt from Draft for the space of time for which such Substitute might be employed, and the deponent & others employed substitutes as before named and each paid the sum of $90 for the services of the 2 substitutes. The deponent was born in Cumberland County State of North Carolina, about the year 1757 or '58, according to the statements of his Parents -- The deponent has no recollection that any record was ever kept of his age -- The deponent during the Revolutionary War was a citizen of & resident within (except while in service as before stated) Wake County in the State of North Carolina -- Shortly after the Conclusion of said War the deponent removed to the State of Georgia in which he has resided ever since -- The deponent did serve as herein before stated, but has no evidence of his said Service that he can procure at this time his said discharges having been long since destroyed -- The deponent was not with soldiers of the Continental line excepting at the Battle of Guilford Court House, & he has forgotten the names of the Regular officers whom he then saw excepting that of General Greene -- The deponent is acquainted with Isaac Norris, Benjamin Webb, James Dixon, and others his neighbors who can testify as to the deponent's character for veracity & their belief of his services as before stated -- The deponent hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of the agency of any State, or (if any) only on that of the agency of the State of Georgia.

Sworn to & subscribed in open Court the day and year first aforesaid.
