[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Also, the handwriting of the original scribes often lends itself to varying interpretations. Users of this database are urged to view the original and to make their own decision as to how to decipher what the original scribe actually wrote. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those and any other errors to my attention.]

State of Tennessee Henry County

On this 5th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open court before the Justices of Henry County now sitting Alexander Craig a resident of Henry County and State of Tennessee aged about seventy-five years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. I was drafted into service in Mecklenburg County North Carolina I think in June 17 under the command of Captain Richard Spring for the term of three months General Rutherford, Colonel Irvine [Erwin], Major White, I do not remember the name of the Lieutenant, marched to Salisbury on my way to Salisbury took charge of 15 or 20 prisoners in an engagement with a party of Tories and took them to Salisbury and put them in jail, from thence we marched to at Adkin River [sic, Yadkin River] where we lay several days and returned to Salisbury. Captain Spring and half his company of which number I was one were furloughed and went home on our return to the Army we met the Army flying from Camden in consequence of Gates defeat. Major William Davie [William Richardson Davie] was stationed at Waxhaw Creek South Carolina. General Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] came along with his Army. We joined him and marched on crossing Catawba River, to the Rocky Mount in South Carolina, where we had a fight of several hours. We were marched from the Rocky Mount to Land's Ford on the Catawba South Carolina where we were discharged by Colonel Irvine on the Catawba River. My discharge is lost.

I volunteered in the Continental line of North Carolina for 10 months in March or April as well as I recollect 1781 in Mecklenburg County under Captain John Foster, Lieutenant Robert Porter, Majors Moore or Bluford and Colonel Henry Hampton. Our company went to the Congaree River South Carolina where we joined the Army commanded by General Sumter about this time Colonel Henry Hampton, Captain John Foster and Lieutenants Robert Porter and many others were sent home as supernumeraries and I was put under Captain Jacob Barnett, Lieutenant Flannigan and Colonel Wade Hampton, we lay several months in the Town of Orangeburg South Carolina a portion of the Army of which I was one were marched to the four hole bridge within about 40 miles of Charleston South Carolina, we returned to Orangeburg where we were discharged by Major Fennell. This discharge is lost also. I have no documentary evidence and I know of no person whose testimony I can procure who can testify to my service.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declare that my name is not on the pension roll of the Agency of any State.

Question 1. Where and in what year were you born

Answer – I was born in Kent County Delaware in the year 1757 in my father removed to Mecklenburg County North Carolina when I was about 5 years old.

Q2. Have you any record of your age.

The record of my age is in my father's Bible in North Carolina.
