State of Tennessee Franklin County: On this 3rd day of September 1832 personally appeared in open court before the justices of the court of pleas & quarter Sessions of said County, now sitting, the same being a court of record Alexander Berryhill a resident of Franklin County in Tennessee aged about sixty-nine years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June seventh 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers & served as herein stated.

In the year 1781 he enlisted in the State of North Carolina in the town of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County for the term of ten months; he believes as well as his recollection serves him he entered the service of the United States in the month of June 1781 but does not remember the day. That he enlisted under Captain James N. Martin and belonged to the third Regiment commanded by Colonel William Polk in which Regiment he served until his term of service expired on the 17th of April 1782 on which day he received from Colonel Polk the discharge herewith filed and left the service: after this applicant enlisted as above stated he was marched with his company from the town of Charlotte in the County of Mecklenburg in the State of North Carolina to Camden in the State of South Carolina, from thence to Statesboro at the high hills of Santee and joined a Regiment at An big lake [???] upon Santee: from thence the Regiment was marched to Brown's old field upon the Congaree [River] where the Regiment remained part of the winter -- thence the Regiment was marched to Orangeburg, but owing to the great length of time since these transactions took place his recollection does not serve him distinctly. This applicant was in the battles of Eutaw Springs & Dorchester and at those battles he was commanded by Lt. Col. Wade Hampton. In the year 1821 this applicant made an application for a pension which is now on file in the pension office at Washington City as he believes -- the deposition of James Evans thereto annexed he refers to in support of this application. This applicant was under the impression that he belonged the Continental establishment and made said application under the act of 18th March 1818; this applicant did not know at that time that he was in possession of the discharge that is now filed with this declaration; being unable to read or write himself he lately procured a friend of his to examine every paper he had among which it was found. This applicant states that he has no other evidence of his services, that he can procure except that above referred to and his own oath & the annexed statements. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State.

[the court set forth the seven interrogatories required by the war department to be put to applicants under the 1832 act]

In answer to the first and second Interrogatories this applicant states -- he does not know the year he was born, he never saw any record of his age, nor does he believe any was ever kept, but he believes as before stated that he is about sixty-nine years of age.

In answer to the third question he states that he was living in Mecklenburg County North Carolina, when he was called into service as above stated. After he received his discharge he lived in the State of Georgia about seventeen miles below Augusta where he lived until about twenty-one years ago when he removed to Franklin County Tennessee where he has lived ever since.

In answer to the fourth question he refers to the foregoing declaration.

In answer to the fifth he refers to the foregoing declaration: he recollects that Colonel Polk commanded the Regiment he recollects of being attached to Hampton's command as above stated; that James N. Martin was his Captain, Robert Walker was his first Lieutenant, Jonas Clark second Lieutenant -- Jesse Clark orderly Sergeant, & John Clark the eldest of these brothers was the adjutant of the troop. During the latter period of his service he was under the command of Major Moore, but he does not recollect his Christian name, nor what Regiment Moore belonged to.

In answer to the sixth interrogatory he refers to the above declaration.

In answer to the seventh Interrogatory he refers to James Martin of said County the son of James N. Martin his Captain to James Weeks with whom he has been acquainted about fifty years.

[James Martin and Charles Weeks gave the standard supporting affidavit. "And James Martin further says -- That about seven years ago he heard his father say that he had seen one of his old revolutionary soldiers in town -- to wit Mr. Alexander Berryhill and a Mr. Evans who he says he had enlisted as soldiers during the revolutionary war: This conversation took place about the year previous to the death of my father. S/ James Martin]

[fn p. 17: On March 1 1838, the veteran applied for the transfer of his pension benefits to the state of Alabama, stating that he had recently removed from Tennessee to Marion County Alabama where he intends to live so "that he might enjoy the society and be with his relations and to advance it practicable his interest." This application for transfer a pension benefits supported by the affidavit of Willis Ward and William Berryhill both of them signed thereon names.]

[Veteran was pensioned at the rate of $33.33 per annum commencing March 4th, 1831, for ten months service as a private in the North Carolina militia.]
