That the first of the month of November 1780 he left his father's house and went to Augusty [Augusta] in the State of Georgia at which place he reached very early in the month of November as well as he now recollects, here he entered the Service of the United States as a volunteer Soldier in a Troop of Horse, which was then called Dragoons under Captain Thomas Harvey and was attached to Colonel Samuel Harmons [sic, Samuel Hammond's?] Regiment, he volunteered for the Term of 10 months, at Augusta and near that place we remained for some considerable length of time, say until about the first of May 1781 we received Orders to join General Green's [sic, Nathanael Greene's] Army at or near 96 in the State of South Carolina, accordingly we took up our line of march, and joined General Greene not far from 96. Our Regiment was then placed under the command of General Pickens, and the whole Army commenced the Siege of it, but we failed, we then encamped not far from 96 and my Captain Thomas Harvey went out on a scouting party and was killed, I was then placed under the Command of Richard Johnson Captain, we then took up our line of march and went to the high hills of Santee, here we remained for a short time, then understanding that the British had encamped at the Eutaw Springs we marched to that place, which we reached in September 1781 where we had a Severe Battle with the British which Engagement I was in, the next morning after the Battle all of the Dragoons was Ordered to march to a place called Moncks Corner and route the British from there, but before we reached there we heard they had left there for Charleston so we marched back to the Eutaw Springs where I remained a very short time and was discharged having served my Tour of 10 months out, the length of time I volunteered for, the day of the month I entered the service, I do not now recollect, nor do I recollect the day of the month I was discharged, but know that I served the full term of 10 months the time I volunteered for, I received a discharge from Colonel Harmon [Hammond?] and had it for a number of years after the War but it is now lost or destroyed, he has no Documentary Evidence that he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can Testify to his service, he can prove by Isaac Reed a clergyman who has been acquainted with me for a good many years, and also by William S.
