On this fifth day of May in the year of our lord One thousand Eight hundred and Eighteen personally appeared before me the undersigned, John McKay, alias McCay now residing in Baltimore County, aged fifty four years or thereabouts, an applicant for a pension under the late Act of Congress, entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States, during the Revolutionary war," and then and there made the following declaration upon Oath, by me administered, "That he enlisted at the age of about fourteen years at George Town in Kent County Eastern Shore of Maryland, some time in the summer of 1780, to the best of Deponants recollection, sent to Chester Town and from thence ordered with other recruits to Annapolis, there mustered in Captain Sheppards Company of Infantry, in the State Regiment, commanded by Col. Smith [Alexander Lawson Smith, pension application W4247], was sent on to Philadelphia with about twenty other boys, under Lieut. Middleton [Theodore Middleton S11075], to carry Horses which had been purchased for the public service. after remaining at the barracks at Philadelphia about three weeks, was ordered with about 200 others to the head of Elk [now Elkton MD], from thence transported by water to Annapolis, where he joined Captain Sheppards Company, drew his cloathing, and marched with said Regiment to Alexandria, thence to Fredericksburg [VA], thence through Richmond to Petersburg, from thence to Hillsborough [NC], where they joined a part of Greens [sic: Gen. Nathanael Greene's] army, after Gate's defeat [defeat of Gen. Horatio Gates Battle of Camden SC, 16 Aug 1780], thence marched to Salisbury, thence to Sharraw Hills [sic: Cheraw Hills SC, Jan 1781], where they joined the Main Army. Col. Smith's Regiment was then detatched to Haleys Ferry on Pedee River [sic: Pee Dee River], as a look out guard, from thence marched and joined the main army near Guilford Court House, crossed Dan river to near Prince Edwards Court House, – soon after the regiment was broke up, the men transferred to fill other regiments and the Officers sent home; deponent was sent as a waiter to Lieut. or Capt. Lane, who returned to Annapolis there deponant joined some troops, which were under Command of General [William] Smallwood, received a furlough to go home; returned and joined Capt. Francis Revelley [Francis Reveley BLWt261-300] Company in Col Adams [Peter Adams BLWt372-450] Regiment, then marched to Williamsburg Va. there joined the main army under Gen'l. Washington, proceeded to the seige of York after the surrender of Cornwallis [19 Oct 1781], marched to the Southward in said Company in what was then called "4th Reg't." to guard artillery and ammunition to supply General Green's army at "Pond Pond" [sic: Ponpon] in S. Carolina, where they joined the army, marched to "Bacons bridge" [near Old Dorchester] and after various movements crossed over to James' Island to winter quarters, where they lay until Charleston was illuminated for the ratification of peace – about the month of June put on board a Vessel, returned to Annapolis, there received a furlough without date – which furlough he left with a certain John Browning and has long since been lost. That his name hath never been enscribed in any pension list, therefore hath none to relinquish, and that from his reduced circumstances he needs the assistance of his country for support.
