[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

The State of South Carolina Pendleton District: before me personally came John Winn and made oath that he is the same John Winn who applied for a pension in 1818. This deponent saith that for the last thirty years he has resided in Pendleton district aforesaid – This deponent saith as well as recollection serves him he entered in the year 1777 for three years or during the war as he understood it.

This deponent saith that he left the service by being taken sick and put into the Hospital at Cheraw Hills in this State. This deponent saith that he continued in the Hospital sick until after peace was made. That he was discharged by the keeper of the Hospital and sent home, he was not able to travel when he was discharged he got into Thomas Caradine's wagon who carried him near his Father's – this deponent saith that as peace was made, and as he had helped to gain our Independence he thought there was nothing further necessary for him to do as the Army was disbursed and he expected it would be more trouble to get the balance of his pay that it would be worth and about four years, pay now due him. This Deponent saith he left the Hospital about November in the year peace was made –

This deponent saith, that he has made every exertion in his power to get from the Honorable Elias Earle the original Declaration which was made and sworn to before Chancellor Thompson on the 15th or 16th day of May 1818. This deponent saith from his distance from Thompson, and on account of his wounds & age he is not well able to go to him. He is often from home holding Courts and has not lately been at home that he the deponent knows of – This deponent sayeth he has no horse to ride to see the judge and hopes proof will be received of the time of his original application. This deponent sayeth the reason he did not get Joseph Grisham to attend to his business was that Colonel Earle was then a member of Congress & promised his influence – And after he put his papers in Earle's hand he never could get any information of what was done or instructions how to proceed jail he applied to Joseph Grisham again. Colonel Robert Anderson preferred his assistance & has measurably supported & assisted him for several years.
