Pension Application of William Castle S44226 Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris. VA NY [filed with NY]

State of New York Ss. William Castel of the town of Hurly in the County of Ulster and State of New York, being duly sworn, doth on his oath declare, that some time in the beginning or winter of the year One thousand, seven hundred and seventy seven, he enlisted in the continental service of the United States of America, as a private Soldier, in Captain Peter Bruen's [sic: Peter Bryan Bruin S42092] company, at Winchester in the state of Virginia, for three years, and continued in the said service in that company, about five months, and then was draughted in Colonel Morgans [Daniel Morgan] Rifle Regiment, under Captain Longs [Gabriel Long VAS970] company, and continued in the said service of the said Company and Regiment untill the 12th day of January 1780, which completed the three years service for which this deponent originally enlisted; and thereupon this deponent received a Certificate from Col. Webb [John Webb BLWt2052-450], now in the deponents possession, whereof the following is a copy

"Lancaster January 12th Day 1780–William Castle a soldier in the seventh Virginia Reg't having served three years the full time of his enlistment and conducted himself during that service as a good and valuable soldier, is now discharged from the service. And is entitled to claim every privilege of land &c allowed for that time by the State of Virginia. John Webb Lt. Colo. 5th Reg't. The commissioners [sic] are desired to furnish William Castle and his wife [see endnote] with provisions on their March to Virginia. John Webb Lt. Colo. 5th V. Reg't."

And this deponent further saith that formerly he has resided about twelve years in the State of Virginia, and latterly about thirty eight years in the State of New York – that he has never obtained even a foot of land from the State of Virginia, or the State of New York, or from the United States, for his said services, or any services in the revolutionary war, nor any compensation or bounty whatsoever, except his ordinary pay as a Soldier while in actual service. And this deponent further saith that when he was discharged as aforesaid in the winter of 1780, at Lancaster, he returned home, his wife and child accompanying him, to Winchester in Virginia and remained at that home, serving as a guard over prisoners of Burgoyn's army [sic: Burgoyne's army captured at Saratoga 17 Sep 1777 and moved to Winchester Barracks in February 1781], untill the next Spring and then took the place of a soldier that was draughted for three months service, to drive the British from Richmond in Virginia, and was in that service only three weeks, when the enemy evacuated Richmond [late April 1781], and this deponent was again honorably discharged. And this deponent further saith that in the next year thereafter, being in the year 1782, he moved with his family to the State of New York, and shortly after his arrival there enlisted in the eight months militia service as a soldier, and served faithfully during the whole of that time, in scouting parties against the Indians & Tories.

And in the next year 1783 this deponent engaged for another eight months similar service and served the said time faithfully untill the general peace. That the Tories during his said last term of service stole two Horses from him of considerable value, which he has never recoved or had any payment therefor. That he hath been engaged in the service of his country in the revolutionary war, in thirteen battles and skirmishes with the enemy – that he was so engaged at the capture of Burgoyne's army – at Monmouth [28 Jun 1778], Gen. Sullivan's battle with the Indians [John Sullivan's expedition, 19 Jun - 3 Oct 1779] – Somerset Court-house [Battle of Millstone, 20 Jan 1777] &c &c And this deponent further saith that on the 15th day of August, he will be sixty six years of age and his wife now living with him, whom he married in Virginia during the revolutionary war, is three months younger that he is. That his family consists of himself his wife and grandchild. that him and his wife are at times much afflicted with the rheumatism, so that the one has not be able to assist the other – that they have latterly frequently wanted the necessaries of life and have no other resources of support but their own labor and personal exertions that he owns no real Property and that he now is and by reason of his reduced circumstances in live he verily beleaves will for the remainder of his Life be in need of assistance from his Country for support.
