‡ and the remainder[?] of his time in Tazwell County Virginia where he now resides. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever, to a claim, or an annuity except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any state. Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforsaid

NOTES:

In a deposition made for the pension application of William Brown (S14998), the clerk spelled the name "McGuyer," and he signed "MGuyer." In the present application, however, his name is spelled "McGuire" by others, and his signature appears as shown above.

In the deposition for William Brown, McGuyer stated that "he served with the said William Brown as an Indian Spy for two years on the waters of Blue Stone in Tazwell County, this affiant cannot state the precise period when the service was performed but according to the best of his recollection it was in the year 1780. & 1781."
