[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

² J. D. Lewis notes: "The battle you describe as Bluford's Bridge or Beauford's Bridge, was actually called the Battle of Heron's Bridge just north of Wilmington, NC on January 30, 1781. It is in my website at:

https://www.carolana.com/NC/Revolution/revolution_herons_bridge.html

The bridge was a recently constructed "swing bridge" that was built by a man named Mr. Buford in the early 1770's. But, by the late 1770's, it had been purchased by a Mr. Heron and everyone in the vicinity knew it as Heron's Bridge - primarily because he strengthened it considerably and made it much more reliable. But, the "old timers" still called it Buford's Bridge.

on and was defeated by the British at Briar Creek [March 3, 1779],³ he then joined General Caswell's light Horse and went to General Greene's [Nathanael Greene's] head Quarters & was then put under the command of Colonel Wade [Thomas Wade of the Anson County NC militia?] & pursued Corn Wallace [Lord Cornwallis] after the battle at Guilford [Guilford Courthouse, March 15, 1781]⁴ as far as Fayetteville North Carolina & was then furloughed to go & join Colonel Axam [sic, Benjamin Exum] to intercept the British & detained them until Greene could get ahead of them and in so doing killed about one hundred & fifty in the swamps in various skirmishes, & he then served three months under Captain John Grantham in a company of fifty men to subdue the Tories & was in several skirmishes – he also states that he was in service five years under the officers above stated. Your Petitioner now states to your Honorable body that he is Seventy four years of age & is not able to make an honest support without some assistance from your Honorable body – With implicit reliance upon the Certificates & evidence adduced to your Honorable body your Petitioner submits his case and prays to be placed on the Pension list

The petition of Levicy Grantham praying to have her name placed on the pension list

pensions

Granted

J. F. Ervin

[p 10]

To the Honorable Speaker and other Members of the House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina.

Your petitioner hereby humbly prays to be placed on the pension list of the State aforesaid. And will hereby attempt to show that I should be entitled to that bounty bestowed on others situated as I am by the Legislature of our State.

First. I am old. I am poor. I am destitute. I am the widow of a Revolutionary Soldier – And have no one to look to for help that I can with propriety claim it from. I have children but they are poor with families – they are not able to do justice by them exclusive of myself. I am the widow of Jesse Grantham who was a pensioner on the bounty of the State aforesaid at the time of his death, which fact can be known by examining the State records at Columbia.

I was married to Jesse Grantham. My said husband in time of the Revolutionary war, and lived with him until his death, and has not since contracted marriage with anyone, neither can I or do I expect ever to do so.

I have never made application to the General Government – if it was necessary – but hope it was not – I will give some reasons for not having done so. I have been informed that it is a difficult thing to get satisfactory evidence for that Government, more particular at this late date – And being now so old, I am unable to go from home to procure friends – And being myself ignorant of the forms and what may be necessary for me to prove to enable me to apply with success to the General Government, I must therefore throw myself on the bounty of my own State praying the fact of my deceased husband's being a pensioner of his State at the time of his death, with other facts herein named will be satisfactory evidence of my just Claims or my state for a bounty as pensioner – My said Husband died in the year of 1835. If consistent I humbly pray that I may be allowed a pension from that date – as I feel that I justly owe those who have supported me since that time all that I can expect from the State. If not consistent, I pray to be placed on the pension list from this time – with such an allowance as has been made by Law for such as I am, the poor old helpless widows of a Revolutionary soldier – who fall for the liberties of our Common Counting – and Your Petitioner will ever pray –
