[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

North Carolina Mecklenburg County, June 3rd 1832 [? could be 1834]³

Dear uncle & aunt we received your letter yesterday, and was sorry to hear of Aunt's ill State of health. I was in great Hopes when I seen her last that she was in a fair way of regaining her health. Grandfather was looking for you to be up about harvest, and was very much agitated When he heard you was Sick, and will be very Uneasy till he hears from you again, he says he can't Complain of his health in no respect only the infirmities of old Age, he Bears the Loss of his beloved wife with a calm resigned [undeciphered word]⁴ And the true courage of a Christian, he is able to rise with help and walk down there In the day, to rest, he says the Loss of Sight and hearing is A great Loss to sustain to sit here and meditate from day to day, without hearing a word that is spoke without it is particularly directed to him he says he must grapple his way here till he gets that awful Summons to repair to another world, there to give an Account of his Stewardship; You said you wanted to hear more particularly about grandmother. She was taken 1832 makes more sense than 1834 because Duncan McCreevan died in March 1832.

1834 dien

Ill on the 7th of April, with a cold chill and a severe pain in her right side, Doctor White attended on her, and he said her disease commenced with a plunacy [pleurisy?] and terminated in the [undeciphered word]⁵ Fever, She Seemed to have a [undeciphered word]⁶ drowsiness on her the most part of her time And never inclined to talk. It was on Tuesday She died, and The Saturday before, She lost her Speech and Continued so till about 1 o'clock Monday night. She Lost the use of her Limbs, and Continued So to 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and Expired, Also on the 15th of May Grandfather McCraven [sic] was well as usual, and walking from his [undeciphered word],⁷ and was Stuck With the palsy, on an Apoplectic fit, and Lost all use of the Left Side (it was at Rachel Robinson[?]⁸ he Lived) and he Lay on the floor till Some of the neighbors was Sent for to Blood him and put him in bed, he never Spoke and kept his Eyes shut, and he Expired on the 7th day of his Stay [text obliterated and rendered illegible], Elizabeth Mc [paper damaged and text missing] Is dead; it was the consumption that has been working with her for many years, and she died in nine days. After She took bed, there is several [?] in our vicinity Laying Sick Jesse Whittow [?] Says if he can he would Go and See you this Summer if he goes I should Like to go with him, But it is very uncertain whether or not Mother says she particularly asked grandmother If She would Send for you, and these are the words She Said – Says She, if She will not come without particularly Sending for, She won't Come if you do Send, She said about what to do with her Cloathes and Mother made three directions, one for you, one for Matthew's Children, and one for her Self, I add no more But remains your Affectionate Niece

North Carolina Mecklenburg County} I W. Barnett an acting Justice of Peace for the county aforesaid certify that I was intimately acquainted with Duncan McRaven for many years before his death has often heard him speak of being in the Revolutionary war and heard told antidotes of his services as often seen large Scars about his head and face which he alleged were caused by Sword cuts received in conflicts and skirmishes with the enemy and has heard him speak of being at Eutaw Springs⁹ and Charleston and that he lived in the family of Adam McCraven for many years and until the widow of Adam McCraven became unable to support herself and family from age and imbecility of mine and that after he left them Your petitioners always nursed him in sickness and that Adam McCraven was his (Dunkin McCraven's] and that he died before his father and his widow has been dead many Years.

And I Certify That I Saw Dunkin McCraven on his death bed and that I made his coffin on the 22nd of May 1832 and that he died at the house of Rachel Robison [sic] and I further certify that besides being palsied and walking with difficulty he was careless and indifferent about business matters as an evidence of which he was partly supported for a few years before his death by the commissioners of the poor for this County and at the Same time had a full right and title to a tract of land in this county which land was sold by your petitioners after his death, but he made no effort to procure the possession of the land before his death. I further certify that I have known the family of your petitioners for many years (forty or more) and know them to be the only known legal heirs of Dunkin McCraven and that I am 70 years of age and have no interest in this claim. House of Representatives

The Committee on Claims

To whom was referred the Petition of David O McCraven, Eveline McCraven and Jane C. Beard praying to be paid the arrears of pension due to their Grand-Father Duncan McCraven, a Pensioner of the State of South Carolina,

Beg leave to – Report –

That they have had the same under consideration and find that Duncan McCraven was placed on the Pension roll of this State, but failed to draw his pension allowed him by law, from March 1796 to March 1832 the time of his death, and the Committee are satisfied, from the mass & respectability of testimony produced, that the claim is a meritorious one and recommend the administrator of the Estate of Duncan McCraven be paid twenty one 42/100 dollars annually from March 1796 to March 1817 and the further sum of sixty dollars annually from March 1817 to March 1832 the time of the Pensioner's death, making in all one thirty hundred & forty-nine 98/100 (1349.98) dollars to which the Petitioners are entitled. The act of the General Assembly in 1816 under certain conditions increase the pay, to Revolutionary Pensioners, to sixty dollars per annum, which conditions the Committee are satisfied have been substantially complied with and as consequently induced to allow, to the Petitioners, the full amount of the increase granted by said act.

> Respectfully submitted T. U. Field For Committee
