[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

Amendment

State of Indiana Ripley County} Sc

On this 11th day of November 1833 personally appeared in open Court before the Honorable Henry B. Dubrill probate Judge of the Ripley County probate court Jacob Micheller named in the declaration for a pension to which this is an amendment and after being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following amendment to his former declaration for a pension to wit In the month of July 1779 he entered the service as a volunteer in Capt. company of militia and served in Col. Caleb Fifer's Regiment of North Carolina Militia, and served for two years and four months under the following named officers, General Rutherford, Col. Fifer, Major White, Capt. Potts, Lieut. Ross [William Ross] and Lieut. Simeannor [?]<sup>3</sup> and Lieut. Garner [James Garner?],<sup>4</sup> he also served under Capt. Hise [Conrad Hise, surname also spelled Hice or Heis] during this tour. This term of time was employed in marches and a constant guard against the Tories and British, the particulars of his term he cannot precisely recollect, but as near as he can state he was employed as follows, and at the following places. He marched from little cold water to Sugar Creek in Mecklenburg County North Carolina thence to Little Cold Water, to Tuckaseege on Catawba River, from thence to Dutch Buffalo, from thence to Second Creek from thence to Charlotte, from thence to the long Bluff in South Carolina on the Pedee River, from thence across Little River from thence to Cold Water, where he remained for about two weeks, but he was constantly under arms and in pursuit of Tories, he was not discharged at all until his services were complete. From Cold Water he marched to twelve mile Creek, from thence to the flat Rock on the waters of the Pine Tree [Camden], from thence to Rougeley's [Rugeley's] Mills, from thence to Camden, from thence to States Borough [Statesborough] on the hills of Santee in South Carolina where he remained on duty for more than three months when he returned back to Mecklenburg County NC by way of Charlotte. He then in month of October 1781 marched from Mecklenburg County to duck [sic Dutch?] Buffalo, from thence to the Atkin [sic, Yadkin] River, from thence to Little River, from thence to Ingram's Farms, where he was verbally discharged by Major White. In the month of September 1781, as he was returning from States Borough to Charlotte he was attacked and robbed by a Tory (as he supposes) of $600 in specie which he had of his own money and was taking it to his residence in Mecklenburg County, the villain assaulted him with a drawn sword and gave him a severe wound on the head which so disabled him that he was insensible to what transpired afterwards for a considerable time. He had obtained permission of his officers to go home for a few days. The general government nor any person has ever compensated him one cent for his services neither as he ever recovered one cent from the monies which he was robbed of. In the summer of 1781 -- he was stationed at States Borough on the high hills of Santee, for more than three months at one time from this place he marched as he has before said to Ingram's Farms where he was discharged.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

Answers to the 7 Questions prescribed by the War Department compounded by the said Court to the said Jacob Micheller. Answer to Question 1. I was born in Mecklenburg County North Carolina in the year 1764. Answer to Question 2. I have a record of my age made by my father, it is at this time in the State of Ohio. Answer to Question 3. At the time I entered the service I resided in Mecklenburg County NC and continued to reside there until after the Revolutionary War when in the year 1807 I removed to the State of Ohio where I continued to remain for some time when I removed to the State of Indiana (in the Ripley County) where I remained until a short time since, when I removed to Butler County Ohio where I am at present sojourning but am not permanently located; but I expect shortly to return to this County again to wit (Ripley) and settle myself permanently, and my Main object, in making this application out of the State of Ohio and out of Butler County, is that if I should be so fortunate as to succeed in procuring a pension it would be more convenient for me to be placed on the Pension Roll of the agency of the State of Indiana, than of the former State. Answer to Question 4. I was a volunteer. Answer to Question 5th. I knew Capt. Martin Fifer, and Capt. Simons, and General Greene. I do not know by name any Continental or Militia regiments at this time who were with the troops there were such haste I have forgotten their numbers, the general circumstances of my service are stated within -- Answer to 6th Question. I received a regular discharge from Major White. Answer to 7th Question. Eugene J. Davis, P. Shooker, Stephen J. Harring, Minot S. Craig, John Lewis, William Lewis &c &c all who know me.
