[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of Kentucky Butler County Sct.

On this 9th day of December personally appeared in open Court before the County Court for Butler now sitting being a court of record John Sharp a resident of the County and State aforesaid aged seventy-four years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated; he enrolled in a Minute Company in Berclay [Berkeley] County Virginia where he was born in the beginning of the year '76 and held himself in readiness for service but was not called on -- in the beginning of the year '77 sometime in January he thinks, he enlisted in a volunteer Company commanded by Captain George Scott which rendezvoused at Martinsburg, Berclay County Virginia and marched from thence on the 20th of January '77 and crossed the Potomac [River] at what was called Watkins ferry from thence to Hagerstown Maryland from thence over the Blue Ridge to Little York in Pennsylvania, from thence across the Susquehanna [River] to Lancaster there the company halted two nights and a day until we got better equipped, thence we marched on to Philadelphia we made no halt here on account of the smallpox being very bad thence we marched on to Germantown here we halted two or three days and the Captain went back to Philadelphia and drew arms, from Germantown we went across the Delaware [River] at what was called Howles ferry in New Jersey to headquarters which were at Morristown, the British lay at Brunswick. From Morristown General Washington ordered our Company back to Baskin Ridge where we were billeted out ready at any call whatever – when called on to perform scouting service our company generally acted in conjunction with a Battalion known by the name of the Cotanian Battalion commanded by one Captain Miller there were three year's men one company were also riflemen, We were discharged the 1st of April '77 which discharge I have long since lost. I served three months in this tour. I further state that in May '81 I volunteered in a company under Colonel Pendleton which was marched with 2 or 3 companies to join General Morgan (who had returned home from the South) against some Tories, who had broken out on the South bank of the Potomac and Loss [? Last] River in Hampshire County, and we were called on to subdue them, which should stand for a tour of three months duty, we will did subdue them. Cornwallis lay at this time in Virginia at Little York. This is all the actual service in which I was engaged making six months in all, but I was frequently enrolled and stood in readiness at any moment to defend my country. I moved from Berclay County Virginia to Fayette County Kentucky thence to this County then in Logan in 1798 where I have
