State of North Carolina Lincoln County: April Sessions 1834

On the 30th day of April 1834 personally appeared in open Court before the Court now sitting Samuel Collins a resident of Lincoln County and State of North Carolina age seventy-nine years, who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the Benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following officers and served as herein stated.

1st That he was drafted in the year 1773 in August under the command of Captain Cook of Lincoln County (then Tryon) that he met his Company at Gilbert town in Rutherford County and there was mustered into service by the said Cook, Colonel William Graham then took command of the Regiment which was assembled at this place which was marched to McFadden's Fort in Rutherford County to defend the settlements against the Indians, he remained under the command of Captain Cook at McFadden's Fort one month & 14 days and was then discharged by Captain Cook but has lost his discharge.

The next tour of service he entered for three months under the command of Captain John Carruth in March 1776 the Company was marched into service on Moomys ten miles from Lincolnton from there the company was marched to Colonel Hamptons in Rutherford against the Indians and Tories and at William Mills they had an engagement at which one person was killed in this War his Company continued as Rangers on Pacolet and Broad Rivers for three months, when they were discharged, but does not recollect that he got a discharge he served in this Tour three months.

The next tour of service he was drafted in Lincoln County [several words obliterated] 1781 was mustered into service at Robert Alexander's in said County at the Tuckaseegee Ford under the command of Captain William Moore was marched by Charlotte crossed the Pedee to Little River where his Company met the Army of General Rutherford the Army was marched through the Country after the British & Tories to the North East River at Wilmington. He with a detachment of seventy militia which were placed under the command of Major Hogg of the Continental line to guard the River were attacked by the British then lying in Wilmington and were driven back to the main Army. He was discharged from service by Captain Moore on the 19th November 1781 which discharge he has in his possession. He knows no clergyman that is acquainted with him. John Harmon<sup>1</sup> served with him in the Expedition to Wilmington his affidavit is annexed.

The two tours under Captain Cook and Carruth he knows of no living witness that could prove his Service.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and he declares that his name is not on the pension list Roll of any agency of any State.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.
