State of Georgia } On this 27\textsuperscript{th} day of August Eighteen Hundred & Thirty two Heard County } personally appeared before me John M Ware one of the Judges of the Inferior court of said county & State, James Wood, a resident of the county of Heard and State of Georgia, aged 77 years (the applicant not being able to attend in open court) who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7\textsuperscript{th} 1832.
That I entered into the service of the U.S. in the company of Captain Jesse Walton, of Second regiment continental Troops as a volunteer about the 1\textsuperscript{st} December 1776. the said regiment was commanded by Col. Samuel Elbert, Col. John Stark and Maj. John Cuthbert. I left the said Regiment continental troops about the 1\textsuperscript{st} July 1777 and accepted the appointment of a first Lieutenant in Capt Folsom’s company, in the Second Regiment of Georgia State Troops, commanded by Col Stuart Lieut. Col Elijah Clark \(\text{sic: Elijah Clarke}\) and Maj. Resa Howard. when I entered the service I was living in Prince Edward County Virginia. I entered the service first as a volunteer and was rendezvoused at George Walton’s in Prince Edward County Virginia, and were marched from their through Salisbury North Carolina, Camden South Carolina, Puryburg and to Savannah Georgia. when we arrived in Savannah we were reviewed and sent up to Golfington in June 1777 where a treaty was then holding with the Indians. after the conclusion of the treaty, we were march to Folsom’s fort on the Ogeechee river for the protection of the frontiers of the State Georgia. In July 1777 I accepted the appointment of first Lieutenant in Capt Folsom’s company in the second Regiment Georgia State troops, commanded by Col Stuart Lieut. Col E.
Clark & Maj R. Howard. in March 1778 we were ordered to proceed on an expedition to Florida. on my march to Florida I received a wound in my right arm at Isreal Birds Mills, then Chatham County Georgia from thence we were ordered to St Mary’s. on arriving at St Marys we remained there a few days and were ordered to march to Fort Toney \(\text{sic: Fort Toney}\). on arriving at fort Tonean we found Gen. Robert Howe and the Continental troops and a Brigade of South Carolina Militia commanded by Gen [Andrew] Williamson, and a Brigade of Georgia Militia commanded by Gov. John Houston \(\text{sic: John Houston}\). A council of war having been held a retreat was ordered on the 12\textsuperscript{th} July 1778. being wounded myself I was allowed to proceed to Savannah. Capt Folsom was ordered back to his station at Folsom’s fort on the Ogeechee. in September, after his arrival at the fort (Folsom’s) Capt Folsom and seven privates were killed by the Indians. I was then the only surviving officer belonging to the company and was then wounded myself. I retired from the service the last of December 1778 I have no Documentary evidence without my copy Grants, of my Bounty land, for services performed during the revolutionary war in Georgia be admitted as such which is hereunto annexed, neither do I know of any person now living whose testimony I can procure who can prove my services. I have never received a pension from any of States or from the United States and I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declare that my name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State
