Northampton County, ss.

On this 20th day of May in the year 1818, before me the subscriber an associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the afores'd County, personally appears Moses Swartwood aged about fifty eight years, resident in Chesnut-Hill [sic: Chestnut Hill] Township in said County, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the revolutionary war: "that he the s'd Moses Swartwood as he believes about the year 1780 at Easton in the s'd County enlisted in a Company commanded by Captain Irvin [sic: John Irwin] of the 1st Pennsylvania Reg't. Col'l. Minas [possibly Francis Mentges], on the Continental establishment, That he enlisted for during the war and was discharged at the end of the war at Philadelphia but his discharge is lost. That he was at the Capture of Cornwallis [at Yorktown VA, 19 Oct 1781] and in several skirmishes to the South. That while in the service he was injured by a team passing over him, the effects of which remain to this day. That he is in reduced circumstances, and by reason of the same and his infirmities stands in need of assistance from his Country for support. That he has no other evidence now in his power of his s'd services. And he hereby relinquishes all claims to any pension to which the laws of the United States may entitle him except the provision of the afores'd act of Congress

[On 30 April 1828 Moses Swartwood made the following statement in support of the application by Fredrick Schaeckhler S40415:]

Moses Swortwood of the County of Northampton aged sixty two years, being duly sworn according to law says, That he is well acquainted with Frederick Sheckler, that he and the said Frederick enlisted in this County in the year 1781 for the term of eighteen months that we marched together to the neighbourhood of reading in this State, and were then placed in the Company commanded by Captain Claypole [Abraham George Claypole] in the third Regiment of the Pennsylvania Line, commanded by Colonel Craig, on the Continental establishment. We marched from thence to Yorktown in Virginia and from thence to South Carolina – where the third Regiment was reduced and both Sheckler and this deponent placed in Captain Stadsburys Company in the second Regiment. At the expiration of the term of service for which we both enlisted Sheckler returned home with Capt. Stadsburys company and deponent again enlisted for a longer term of service. He receives a pension from the United States

NOTES:

On 13 May 1820 William K. Sitgreaves, agent for Moses Swartwood, made a statement that reads in part as follows: "That the said Swartwood appears to be a man of an exceedingly weak mind and whether by age, infirmities or other causes his memory is almost totally impaired."

On 24 Jan 1845 Mary Magdalena Swartwood of Upper Mount Bethel Township in Northampton County stated that she was married in Craig's Settlement in that county on 11 Jan 1787 to Moses Swartwood, who died on 11 Sep 1844. She stated that they had six children, three of whom still lived, and that the oldest, Jacob Swartwood, was born on 6 Aug 1790, went West, and died several years previously. Her declaration was certified by John Swartwood, who stated that he was born on 28 April 1797 as the fourth child of Moses and Mary Magdalena Swartwood. John Swartwood gave the following information about two other children: Joseph Swartwood, born about two years after Jacob, also deceased; and Daniel Swartwood, about 50.

The file contains the birth certificate in German of Jacob, son of Moses Schwardtwuth and his wife, Mary Magdalena, née Laudebach. Godparents were Jacob and Sussanna Schehet[?].

On 24 July 1848 Mary Magdalena Swartwood was said to be 77.

On 12 Jan 1855 it was certified that Mary Magdalena Swartwood died on 27 March 1851, leaving the following three children: John, Daniel, and Peter.
