[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Also, the handwriting of the original scribes often lends itself to varying interpretations. Users of this database are urged to view the original and to make their own decision as to how to decipher what the original scribe actually wrote. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those and any other errors to my attention.]

State of Georgia Murray County

On this the 12th day of July 1848 personally appeared before William Hammond one of the Justices of the Inferior Court in & for said County Sarah Stanfield a resident of the County & State aforesaid aged ninety years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the Act of Congress, passed __ entitled "An Act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows". That she is the widow of John Stanfield who served in the Revolutionary war as a private soldier part of the time under a Captain Arnold, Major Crump, and General Caswell as well as she recollects, and part of the time he filled the office of Lieutenant and part of the time as Captain to the best of her knowledge & belief. That he went out with the second Troops after the first Troops returned to the best of her knowledge he was a volunteer from the County of Guilford in the State of North Carolina & continued in service from the time he entered throughout the whole war until the close, she only remembers one battle that he the said John Stanfield was engaged in which was at the court-house in the said County of Guilford what time it was, she does not now recollect, that all of the documentary evidence which she had of these facts were lost & destroyed together in her travels backwards & forwards after the death of the said John Stanfield, that this evidence consisted of his discharge or discharges from Service in the war: and that she lost & had destroyed at the same time her family records. She further declares that her husband the said John Stanfield was a member [?] from the County of Randolph in said State of North Carolina, which said County of Randolph was taken from the County of Guilford aforesaid to the General Assembly in the House of Commons at Tarboro about the year 1787.

She further declares that she was married to the said John Stanfield on the 16th day of February in the year 1777 by a Parson Gordon a Minister of the Episcopal Church on Sabbath in a Parish Church in the County of Halifax in the State of Virginia "upon publication of the Bans": she does not remember any person or persons present except the parties & their relations & that all of said relations are now dead to the best of her knowledge; That her husband sometime after the close of the war moved to Abbeville District in the State of South Carolina where he died on the 8th day of November in the year 1805. She further declares that she had twelve children by the said John Stanfield & that with two exceptions the whole twelve and arrived at years of maturity; and eight of said children are now alive to the best of her knowledge, the first child was born on the 19th day of January 1778 & the last child was born on the 23rd day of December 1803 & the others of the children's births ranging between the year 1778 & 1803, aforesaid, and that the said John Stanfield her husband died on the 8th day of November 1805.

She further swears that she is now a widow & has been ever since the death of her husband the said John Stanfield, and that she has never before made any application for a pension,

Sworn to & subscribed before me on the day & year above written.
