State of Virginia Tyler County

On this 17th day of August 1833 personally appeared before the County Court of Tyler County William McKay a resident of said County of Tyler and State aforesaid aged Seventy-three years the 23rd day of October 1832, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832.

That he enlisted in the 6th Regiment North Carolina State Troops for the Term of six months sometime in the early part of the year 1776, with Capt. John Griffin McCrae [Griffith John McRee], whose Company he was attached during his service of six months; That at the time of his Enlistment he resided in Bladen County in the State of North Carolina, in which County he enlisted, that he was marched to & stationed at Wilmington in the State last aforesaid, where he was discharged after having served the Tour of six months for which he enlisted. That the officer in command at Wilmington when he was stationed there was Brig. General Moore, who died before his six months expired. That attached to his company were Lieutenants Giles, Christopher Gooden & Ensign Richard Singletary.

That in the month of December in the year 1779, he resided in Rowan County, North Carolina, where he was drafted for a Tour of three months & rendezvoused at Charlotte Town, Mecklenburg County, that in this Tour he served under Capt. John Sloan [Johnson Sloan], in the North Carolina Militia, that from the place of rendezvous he was marched to Charleston South Carolina; The Station by General Lincoln [Benjamin Lincoln]; that he only recollects of his own company officers (in addition to the Capt. already named) Lieut. Sharp. That he knew in this service Captains Alexander & Graham or Grimes, who were also from the State of North Carolina: That he served three months, the time for which he was drafted & was discharged at Charleston, South Carolina, the 24th day of March 1780.

That in the summer of the year 1780 he was still residing in Rowan County aforesaid, when he was drafted for a three months Tour, & served under Capt. Hugh Gilmore, guarding the Ford of the Catawba River, between the farms then owned by William Kale & Samuel Huston, to prevent the British Army from passing or crossing said River; That he served three months the term for which he was drafted & was discharged in the fall of the year 1780 aforesaid.

That in the winter of the year 1780 in the month of December, he still resided in Rowan County aforesaid, in the State of North Carolina aforesaid, when he was again drafted for a three months Tour, that he was attached to a company commanded by Capt. James Crawford & was marched to & stationed at McCowan's Ford [sic, Cowan's Ford] on the Catawba River in said state. That on the first day of February (as well as he recollects) in the year 1781, he with the troops stationed at said Ford had an engagement with the British under Lord Cornwallis, who passed the River at said Fort, killing General Davidson [William Lee Davidson] his commander & taking him together with others of the American Army prisoners. That at the time of this engagement, he had served out his Term of three months within a few days. That the British kept him a prisoner until they reached Charleston, South Carolina, and afterwards, detained him as a Prisoner until after the capture of Lord Cornwallis [Yorktown, October 19, 1781]; then they either set him at liberty, or he was regularly exchanged, he does not recollect which. In this Tour he served 3 months within a few days as aforesaid & was detained a prisoner with the Enemy as aforesaid from about the first of February 1781, until after Cornwallis's capture, which was the 19th of October 1781, say 8 1/2 months, making in all as a soldier & prisoner this last tour Eleven & an half months. That for the first two named Tours he received regular discharges, but which have long since been destroyed or lost, as he considered them of no value & took no particular care of them. That while in the United States service, he was acquainted with a number of officers among others Generals Lincoln, Davidson & one of General Davidson's aids __ Pogue.

That he cannot from the lapse of time recollect the number or names of any Continental or Militia Regiments with which he served, other than the one in which he first served. That he was born in Scotland the 23rd day of October 1759, that he has no record of his age, but has a distinct recollection of the account, his Parents gave him of his age, which is that before stated. That his Parents emigrated with him from Scotland to the State of North Carolina, about the year 1772 or 3. That since the Revolutionary War he resided in Rowan County, afterwards a short time and Iredell County taken from Rowan, afterwards in Richmond County, afterwards he removed to Chesterfield County in the State of South Carolina, from where he removed near 40 years ago to Ohio County, from which Tyler was taken, where he lived one year, thence he removed to this County, which was then part of Ohio, where he has ever since continued to reside. That he has no documentary evidence by which he can prove his services & knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service.

That he is acquainted with the Rev. Thomas Jones, Joseph McCoy, William Wales, John Nicklin, John McCoy, John Martin & others of his neighborhood, who can testify as to his character for veracity & their belief of his services in the Revolution. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity but the present & declares that his name is not on the Pension roll of any State. Sworn to & subscribed the day & year aforesaid

S/ Wm McKay

Dear Brother and Sister
Brother Hugh received your Extended Letter dated the 27th of February last which afforded us great Satisfaction to learn you were all in perfect at that time.

I have acquainted you that I and family do enjoy good health as also all the rest of your Brothers & Sister – you in yours request to know how Isabella’s children was [indecipherable word] they are with their Father in Jones County in the State of Georgia on the Ocmulgy [Ocmulgee] River near Fort Hawkins – Sister Catherine was not married neither is Brother William. Brother Alexander is not married he has sold out all his immovable Property and one of his Negroes and he has two yet unsold & his plantation sometimes he has a talk of going to you but it is not certain as yet but will determine by our next – you requested to know whether they were thicker settled now than when you left here they are Double were nearly as thick – they were at that time but is in a good way of making money since peace – Every produce sales well at this time best winter at 26 cents per pound we made a tolerable quantity in this neighborhood Bacon sales and $.15 per pound corn at 75 to 80 cents per bushel & all other country produce in proportion also you requested to know something concerning Maxwell McKay’s wife and you we know nothing particular about them the last we heard his son was then living the other side of Cheraw Hill. The range of cattle has broke much since you left here and there price risen in proportion to their Scarcity –

I scarce have anything else to write worth the merit of your attention I was married on the 31st day of August last to Miss Catherine Henderson daughter of Manassah Henderson on the 9th day of February 1809 sister Margaret was married to a young man by the name of John Gordon – they are now living up Shoe Heel where Angus McAllister formerly lived, they have 4 children 2 sons & 2 daughters their oldest named Alexander (after her husband’s father) the next Isabella – 3rd Effey and 4th William. I will conclude with requesting of you to write some of us as soon as this comes to hand Catherine & your Sister Margaret joins in their best respects to you all. I am Dear Brother & Sister yours while [indecipherable word]
