Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those errors to my attention.]

In the month of September in the year 1779 I enlisted for three years in Captain Jackson's company of the 4th South Carolina Regiment [sic, Third Regiment] commanded by Colonel Thompson [sic, William Thomson] in the Continental line in Ninety-six District near Granby and we marched to Stono River where we had a battle with the British, and beat them off. We then marched to Charleston where we continued stationed about three months, and from thence to we marched to Saluda River and thence to Broad River and Colonel Thomson was promoted to a General and Colonel Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] succeeded him and soon after General Greene [Nathanael Greene] took command we fought the Battle of Guilford² in March 1781 & then we marched to Ninety-Six³ where we besieged the British until Lord Rawdon came on and General Greene retreated, and after Rawdon pursued General Green across Broad River and as soon as Greene was reinforced he again made head against the British and we marched down to the Eutaw Springs⁴ where Rawdon made a stand and we crossed over and I was engaged in this Battle of Eutaw where we whipped the British, and after the Battle of Eutaw where I was bayoneted through the thigh and hit on my shoulder & shot through my arm having been badly wounded and my shoulder broken with the butt of a musket, which has subjected me to fits for the last 26 years [ten lines of text are here lined and crossed out] and Previous in the Summer 1780 I was detached in Captain Hughes' company of Colonel Branham's [sic, Thomas Brandon's] Regiment of the South Carolina Militia, and we marched to King's Mountain where we had the battle⁵ with General Ferguson [sic, Major Patrick Ferguson] and after the Battle we returned to Brown's Creek and I was afterwards marched to the Cowpens⁶ where we joined General Morgan [Daniel Morgan] and defeated Tarlton [sic, Banastre Tarleton] but I was taken prisoner myself and afterwards at Blackstock's⁷ on Tyger Creek I made my escape and joined my own company and we beat Tarleton and pursued him several miles having served in this Regiment about nine months and after Lord Cornwallis was taken I was discharged honorably. I have no documentary evidence of my age or service having long since lost my discharges and I do not know of any person living except Henry Deshasure⁸ of Mercer County (Ky) by whom I can prove any of my services and I have this day seen and conversed with him and I hereby release all claim that I have to any pension or annuity and I am not nor a pensioner of the United States or of any State.

Witness my hand this 13th day of September 1832.

Anderson County: viz.

This day Henry Deshasure came into open court and being first sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following statement, viz.: I Henry Deshasure do hereby solemnly declare that I have known the above Benjamin Warford who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration since the year 1779 and have known him ever since. I have conversed with him and I well remember that I was confined in Ninety-Six jail when General Greene besieged it, and the account said Warford gives of the Siege I have no doubt he was there. I also was with said Warford in Colonel Brandon's Regiment and we were together at the Battle of King's Mountain, the Cowpens and Blackstocks Ford on Tyger Creek – so that I knew of said Warford's services during that time and his other services. I was present at some of them although in a different Regiment he has described to the many particular events which satisfy me that he was with Cols Sumter and Marion and that he served more than two years. The said Warford is a man of truth and veracity. Witness my hand this 13th day of September 1832.
