[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Also, the handwriting of the original scribes often lends itself to varying interpretations. Users of this database are urged to view the original and to make their own decision as to how to decipher what the original scribe actually wrote. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those and any other errors to my attention.]

McKannon, Christopher

His name appears on a list of applicants for invalid pension returned by the District Court for the District of Virginia submitted to the House of Representatives by the Secretary of War on February 28, 1790 and printed in the American State Papers class 9, page 164.

Rank: Sergeant-Major

Regt: Virginia line

Disability; wounded in his left arm

Monthly allowance; $4.00

Arrearage; $150.00

This person is dead; the object of the application appears to be, that his family might receive his arrears of pension, as his claim was submitted by the Circuit Court an [sic, and?] has not been confirmed by the Supreme Court

The rate of pensions and arrears above specified are stated by the District Judge, who, it is presumed, is not authorized in so doing by the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the claims to invalid pensions."
