The file contains several documents similar to the above, the last dated 21 Sep 1830. The following are from bounty-warrant records in the Library of Virginia.]

I do hereby Certify that the within Samuel Blair was a Sergeant in the 12th Virginia Regiment on Continental Establishment, that he enlisted Early in the year 1777, and that he was reported, & I believe was mentioned on the Muster Rolls of the Regiment, as having died in service, but at what time I do not recollect.

Given under my hand this 14th December 1808. James Wood formerly B. Gen'l Cont'l. Army

A warrant appears to have issued to Samuel Blair the 10th day of May 1785 for 100 acres of land, the proportion allowed a private of the Continental line for 3 years service, which is the only warrant that appears to have issued in his name.

Edw'd C Davis Reg'r

Land Off/ 15 Dec'r. 1808

It appears that the above warrant for 100 acres iss'd to Samuel Blair in person, and it is presumable was drawn by himself from the office C Blagrove

This is to Certifie that Samuel Blair Sergeant was Inlisted in the Continental Army for three years by me and that he died in the service after the Battle of Jermantown [sic: Germantown, 4 Oct 1777] leaving behind him a wife & Three Children and that no one for them his applied for his Pay or land warrent Given under my hand the 18th day of August 1783
