To the Legislature of Virginia

The petition of Joseph Miles respectfully sheweth that he was a soldier during the revolution; that he fought the battles of his country and contributed to that sucess which crowned us with Liberty and independence during this contest glorious to his country but important to himself whilst engaged in it service he became utterly and entirely blind since that period he has not participated in the general happiness and prosperity with which he has been surrounded his life has been a continued scene of gloom and wretchedness; steeped to the lips in poverty not possessing two shillings worth of property aged infirm and blind to add to the difficulty of his situation he is the father of three small children who have been heretofore supported by the industry of an affectionate mother now sleeping with the dead the Legislature of this state concious of his claims upon their justice some years ago placed him on the pension list and allowed him the scanty stipend of forty Dollars a year. this sum he has regularly received but is it necessary to say that it is insufficient to furnish him and his wretched children with bread & raiment and a house in which to shelter themselves? The county of Dinwiddie sensible of the misery & the merits of your petitioner with a humanity which does it honor, but upon a continuance of which he has no right to calculate gave him in addition to his pension another forty dollars but for this circumstance and the accidental intervention of precarious charity your petitioner together with his unfortunate ofspring must have perished.

your petitioner respectfully prays this honorable body to take his case into consideration and to grant him such relief as may be proper. and your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray
