The following are from [bounty-land records in the Library of Virginia.]

I John Cannady [John Cannaday S9161], a resident of the County of Fauquier in the state of Virginia, do upon oath testify and declare, that my father David Canady & myself enlisted in the service for three years at Price's old Tavern in Westmoreland County, in which we then resided, under midshipman Benj Strother [Benjamin Strother R97]. We both entered on board the ship Tempest at Fraziers Ferry in King William County. About three months after we got on board the Tempest, which was in the fall of 1778, my said father was taken sick & died and was buried at the s'd ferry. He left but two children, myself and my sister Sousan. My said sister died at the age of ten or eleven and I am now the only heir at law of my said father. My s'd father left no will. I further declare that neither my father nor myself ever received a warrant for the bounty land due to him; nor did I till recently, receive a warrant for the bounty for my own services.
[certified 31 Oct 1834]

I certify that I was born and bred in the same neighborhood in Westmoreland County with John Canady, who has testified to his father's services on the other side of this sheet.

I enlisted & entered the navy nearly about the same time, and know of my own knowledge, that the s'd John's father (David Canady) did enlist, and serve and die in the navy as said John has stated on the other side. The said John has also given a correct statement as to his father's descendants. David Canady left only two children, s'd John & a daughter, which daughter died in infancy.
