ENLISTMENTS, MUSTER ROLLS, AND PAY ROLLS OF GEN. PULASKI'S LEGION MARCH 1779 TO NOVEMBER 1780

Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris. Revised 30 Sep 2024.

INTRODUCTION

Kazimierz (or Casimir) Pulaski, born in Poland on 4 Mar 1747, is one of the most celebrated figures of the American Revolutionary War. After arriving at Boston in July 1777 and serving as Gen. Washington's Aide-de-Camp at the Battle of Brandywine, he quickly won the attention of Congress, which commissioned him a Brigadier General and Commander of the Horse. (See time line below.) On 28 March 1778 Congress authorized Pulaski to raise an independent legion – a force comprising both cavalry and infantry. Pulaski recruited first in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and New York and then filled out the ranks in Baltimore with many Hessian prisoners and deserters. The present transcription lists many of the soldiers' names as recorded in their enlistment oaths, muster rolls, and payrolls, as found at Fold3.com beginning with image https://www.fold3.com/image/9682620. These rolls encompass the crucial period from March 1779, when the Legion left Pennsylvania for South Carolina, until after the siege of Savannah in October 1779, where Pulaski was killed and the Legion depleted.

The following table showing the date and place of each roster and the number of troops chronicle the depletion of the ranks by discharges, desertions and casualties.

Capt. Jan Zielinsky (Zielinski)	19 Mar 1779	York PA	48	(p8)

Capt. Henry Bedken	13 Dec 1779	Morristown NJ	20	(p36)
	15 Mar 1780	Westfield NJ	14	(p38)
COMPANY OF GRENADIERS (HEAVY CAVALRY)
Capt. James, Chevalier de Segond	19 Mar 1779	York PA	45	(p17)

SUPERNUMERARY COMPANY
Capt. Joseph Baldesqui	19 Mar 1779	York PA	31	(p23)

In these records the spellings of names are particularly difficult. Some are German names written in English as they sounded to a Frenchman. Many names appear on more than one roster with different spellings, and some officers even signed their own names with two different spellings. In doubtful cases I have tried to give more likely spellings in brackets. I have also added the number of any pension or bounty-land applications, as well as the letter B to indicate soldiers recruited at Baltimore according to a list published by Spencer (1918).

The pages I have transcribed are rearranged chronologically rather than in the sequence found at Fold3.com. Some pages in the file are not transcribed here because they are redundant. In addition I have elected not to transcribe the following pages that do not list soldiers' names:
"Account of Money paid Count Pulaskie's Legion" 7 May 1778 - 4 March 1779
"Monies paid Gen'l Count Pulaski on Acc't of his Legion by the Board of War" 9 May - 22 Oct 1778
"A General Account of the Expences Made by General Count Pulaski's for his Legion" 1778
"Cash advanced by the payment of the Board of War & adv'd to Count Pulaski for the use of his Legion"

The following two lists suggest that the transcribed rosters may not include all those in the Legion. Pension applicants who apparently served in Pulaski's Legion but are not on the transcribed rolls:
Joseph Bertoulin R802
James Blackburn S39197
James Busby W2995
Paul Louis Celoron X941: Aide-de-Camp of Gen. Pulaski
John Fulmer (Volmer) R3845
James Holland W7800
Benjamin Johnson W4467
Uriah Odam (Odham) R7810
John E. Reinhart R8696
John Rock W985
John Schrader S41134
John William Shobe S38372
Jacob Wagner S6320
Henry Walker S40624
Charles Donnom Warrick W3481
Joseph Wood S16583

Not on the rolls but on a list of recruits at Baltimore (Spencer 1918):
Philip Beatty, Bryan Dallam, John Hooper, Thomas Hoult, Peter Neguire, John Tedford.

[The following lists are from undated tables presumably made after the remnants of Pulaski's Legion and the 3rd Maryland Continental Regiment under Col. Mordecai Gist were together at Hillsborough NC in the summer of 1780. It appears to be an accounting of government clothing and equipment that was taken by men who deserted or were transferred to other regiments. Names that appear in earlier rosters for Pulaski's Legion are boldfaced. Others might presumably be deserters from other regiments. The following transcription lists only the names and for all but the last table their "stations" – whether dragoons or infantry. The original tables list the following clothing and equipment: "Coats, Skin Jackets, Skin Brechees [breeches], woollen Jackets, woolen brechees, Overhols [overalls], Linen Jackets, Shoes, Boots, black Stocks & Buckles, Shirts, Stockins, Sword belt, Swiffels [swivels] & belt, Hunting Shirt, Carabines, Swords, Pistols, Great Coats, Horsses, Capes, Blankets, Knapsacks, Saddles, Bayonets belt, Knee buckles & boots buckles, Swords slings, Cartrige box for Cavalery, Carabines belt, Riffles, fire Locks." Only dragoons had swords, carbines, pistols, and, of course, horses and saddles. Only infantrymen had either rifles or fire locks (muskets) with bayonets.]
