Jackson County To wit

On this 29 day of November 1853 Aaron Cheuvront personally appeared before W. Reed a justice of the peace for this County and State of Virginia and after being duly sworn according to law deposeth and sayeth, That Joseph Cheuvront dec'd (late husband of Sarah Cheuvront who is an applicant for a widower pention (pension) agreeable to a act of Congress passed February 5th 1853 – was a private in Captain ____ (blank) Company of ____ (blank) in the Revolutionary War with Great Britton (Britain) of 1776 and that he served ____ (blank) months in said war and received an honorable discharge from service. Aaron Cheuvront deponent is son of the husband of the applicant for a pension as above. I certainly recollect that soon after my father's death myself and others were examining my father's papers and I saw his discharge from services rendered during the revolution, but for how long a term of service or the name of his captain I don't recollect. I remember to have heard him frequently say he was at the taking of Cornwallace (Cornwallis) at York.

Subscribed and sworn before me this day and year first above written. I am not interested wither directly or indirectly in the procurement of the aforesaid pention (pension). Given under my

Warren Reed J. P.

Letter in File dated May 7, 1934 to a Miss Margaret Cheuvront of Lincoln Nebraska regarding her "request for the Revolutionary War record of Joseph Cheuvront who died in 1832."

The letter gave information from the file and also said, "It was also alleged that he married in Ohio December 2, 1802, Sarah (maiden name not given)"... "The pension claim of Sarah Cheuvront was not allowed as proof of the alleged service and of the marriage of the soldier and Sarah was not furnished in accordance with the requirement of the pension law."

The following may be family myth, but it is interesting and does mention his Rev War service.

Final Words of Joseph Cheuvront

Supposedly this text was transcribed in 1862 by Lemuel G Cheuvront, great grandson of the Rev Joseph Cheuvront. Lemuel and his brother Andrew received a copy of Joseph's last words from their grandfather Aaron Cheuvront who had copied his from Joseph's original written with chalk on a slate just days before Joseph died.

He died August 12th, 1832. It is said he was suffering with quinsy that caused his throat to swell, and he was unable to speak. He used a slate to write the following words:

"Since it has pleased God to deprive me of the power of speech, I bless His holy name I enjoy my mental faculties. My fingers can communicate my wishes on the slate. I address this to you my children as a memento, which I request each of you to transcribe for future generations. I was born in the city of Strasbourg in the empire of France on the 2nd day of February AD 1757. I was reared in the city of Nantes and received my education when very young. In the year of 1771 being in the fifteenth year of my age, I went to England where I remained until 1773 when I embarked for America and landed at Fredericksburg in Virginia AD 1774, and was converted to God in the following year.

I united myself with the despised Methodists, and by them have been employed in various stations, to wit, 1st as a class leader, 2nd as an exhorter, 3rd as a local preacher, 4th as a traveling preacher, 5th as a deacon, 6th as an elder and 7th as a recording steward; in all of which places I have I believe given satisfaction to my brethren. I have now been in the Church 53 years, and have never had a charge brought against me. I don't say this to boast, but to ... stimulate you to support and maintain a good character.

In the year 1781 at the siege of Yorktown God delivered me from all tormenting fear, and gave me two seals to my ministry. I have filled some important stations in the state in all of which I have endeavored to establish mine and your characters. I have tried to be a father to you, and through great difficulties I have raised you to what you are.

I have often counseled you, and have endeavored to set good examples before you yet some of you remain unconverted, and some of your who profess religion are I fear very superficial and lukewarm. I am soon going to leave you. Must I leave you in the hands of the wicked one? May the good Lord hear and answer my prayers on your behalf! This is the last advice of your dying father. Try to set the fear of God before your eyes. Do not grieve one another, live in peace and love together. Be good to your mother. Do not lay anything in her way that might distress her. I now bid you farewell,. I am truly resigned to the sufferings I experience. I have long looked for and desired the hour of my dissolution. I love God and all mankind. I feel that I am bound for the Kingdom of Glory. Glory to God in the highest!"]
