[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

August 27th 1838

I certify that my Father Peter Barrick and my Brother Peter told me they met with William Dunlap Senior and William McDowells still house some 15 years ago And that said Dunlap said he was a Tory in the revolutionary war, and that the Whigs caught him and his Brother and drove them before them (the Whigs being on horseback) through a marsh, and that he out went his brother in the marsh and the last he has ever seen or heard of him he was a dipping up water either with his hands or hat to drank, and that he Dunlap made his escape from the Whigs, and again joined the Tories.

A lexander M Barrick

Note I expect to see my Father & Brother shortly and then a certificate will be obtained from them.

A. M. B.

My Dear Sir,

You can see from the above certificate what kind of man has applied and succeeded in getting pensions, This same Dunlap is one of the men who certify for Garrard,<sup>2</sup> and likewise Garrard for him. The plain truth is neither of them were entitled to a pension.

I understand Garrard had sent on more testimony. You will do me as well as the department a favor to let me know the name of the witness, where he lives and the name of the magistrate before whom he testified: As I think I perhaps have some knowledge of the source from whence it came, and I will write you the result of my inquiry. Likewise, a certificate from the Barricks under oath. I am yours with the utmost respect
