[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

That he is or will be Eighty years of age on the 19th day of August in the year 1845. That in the fall after he was 16 years of age 16 in the County of Chester in the State of South Carolina he was drafted as a soldier for three months in the company of Captain Ramsey under Colonel John Adair – we rendezvoused at a place called the Cross Roads about 200 in number – then marched to Orangeburg to guard the fort and prisoners. In the winter following we were discharged and came home. For this tour of duty he never has been paid. That a few days after his return from this said tour of duty a company of about 70 men who were to be deemed Rangers and spies was organized in Chester County South Carolina under the command of Captain John Mills and James Gill a brother of this Deponent. -- That he as well as the others was regularly enlisted in this Corps for the term of 12 months at one dollar per day – That he served out the said term of 12 months and was regularly discharged. they all rendezvoused at the same place and was there and then paid off in full one dollar per day – And this deponent well remembers that the first guinea that he was ever the owner of was paid him for his services in this expedition – that he acted mostly as a spy in the said expedition. That he recollects that a Captain Hook [sic, Christian Huck] of the British Army under Lord Cornwallis came up into the post of South Carolina and that this affiant spied him out and gave the information to Captain Gill when General Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] Regiment cut out and defeated Hook<sup>3</sup> and his men and Hook was killed in the engagement.

That he is informed that his brother James Gill who was a Captain in said company was some years ago placed on the pension list in Alabama. That his brother George Gill<sup>4</sup> was a pensioner as a Colonel in Chester County South Carolina and his brother Captain Thomas Gill<sup>5</sup> was a pensioner on the Pension Roll of Illinois. That he believes that his brother James was pensioned on account of the same description of service that this deponent performed. That this deponent was regularly mustered into service – was regularly paid and discharged by his officers except that he was not paid for the three months tour as aforesaid. That about the year 1835 he made application under the act of 7 June 1832 from the State of Kentucky in Logan County. That he now resides in the State of Illinois. That he was younger than the Brothers above named. That he knows of no living person by whom he can prove these facts. That this deponent was a witness for his brother James Gill when he applied for a pension.

That when this Deponent applied for a pension he adduced the deposition of Captain James Gill of Greene County Alabama testifying for his faithful performance of the said 12 months duty against the enemy and that he also forwarded the deposition of a Mr. Hamilton Brown of the same State testifying to his services the three months aforesaid. That this deponent is old and poor – has had much trouble and mortification at being refused a pension while others have been pensioned for the same service. That he was a private in all the service he performed.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of May 1845.

In a letter sent from Palestine Illinois on April 10, 1845 addressed to M. Manley Esqr., John Houston states that Robert Gill is an old acquaintance of Houston having known him for upwards of 35 years; when Houston first met Gill he was a Presbyterian preacher but soon thereafter joined the "Shaken Quakers" where property is held in common; that during his stay with that society, Gill had little use for money but since he left the Society (recently) he solicits the pension due him from the government; that Gill's Brother Thomas Gill was one of the first settlers of Palestine Illinois and was a Captain in the revolutionary War and drew a pension until his death a few years ago.
