[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

On this third day of September in the year 1832 personally appeared before the Inferior Court of said County now sitting for ordinary purposes Andrew Lee a resident of Capt. Adams District in said County aged about Seventy two years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under Col. Elijah Clark [a/k/a Elijah Clarke] as a volunteer in the Militia of the State of Georgia in Wilkes County he thinks in the year 1780 in September, just after the first siege of Augusta<sup>1</sup> -- was placed under Capt. George Walton, and was marched to Holston [River] and the head of Watauga River in North Carolina & was marched from there to near the head of Catawba River where we were joined to General Sumpter's [Thomas Sumter's] Command, & were marched to Blackstocks<sup>2</sup> on Tyger River where we had a battle with the British & Tories under Tarleton [Banastre Tarleton], in this battle (20 November 1780) General Sumpter was wounded, after the battle he was discharged by Capt. Walton, having served about three months. He then returned to his regular residence in Abbeville District South Carolina, and about first of January 1781 he volunteered in Abbeville, as what was called a minute man, and in that month was marched under Col. Anderson [Robert Anderson] and Captain through the country and down towards Augusta, and was marched into Georgia and had a fight with the Indians on the Oconee River, and was afterwards, or just before, he does not recollect, that he was marched and joined Greens [sic, Nathanael Greene's] Army at the siege of Ninety Six in June 1781,<sup>3</sup> remained there till Genl. Green raised the siege, and was afterwards detached to go with General Pickens [Andrew Pickens] the last siege of Augusta;<sup>4</sup> and when Col. Lee [Henry "Light Horse Harry" Lee] arrived at Augusta he returned with Genl. Pickens to Abbeville, from which time he was kept on duty scouring after British & Tories & Indians until the end of the War.

Served altogether about two years and six months as a private in the Light Horse and

State of Georgia Franklin County SS

Personally appeared before me the undersigned an Acting Justice of the Peace in and for said County Andrew Lee, who has heretofore sworn to and subscribed the original Declaration to which this is annexed and who being again duly sworn on oath says That by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory he cannot swear positively as to the precise length of his service but according to the best of his recollection he served not less than the periods mentioned below and in the following grades

<sup>3&</sup>lt;sup>rd</sup> Where were you living when called into service: where have you lived since the Revolutionary War and where do you now live?

<sup>4&</sup>lt;sup>th</sup> How were you called into service; were you drafted; did you volunteer or were you a substitute, and if a substitute, for whom?

<sup>5&</sup>lt;sup>th</sup> State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops where you served, such Continental and militia regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

<sup>6&</sup>lt;sup>th</sup> Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given and what has become of it? 7th State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief in your services as a soldier in the revolution.

In 1780 he served for three months as a private under Capt. Walton & Col. Clark, this was about the time of the first siege of Augusta.

In 1781 he entered in January and served under Capt. Little [sic, probably Capt. George Liddell] (Capt. Cowan<sup>6</sup> being sick) and Col. Anderson and served one month after the Tories on Saluda [River] as a private.

In February 1781 he served for three months under Lieut. David Clark & Col. Anderson as a private, in this tour had a fight with the Indians on the Oconee [River] in Georgia.

In May 1781 he entered and served three months and was at the siege of Ninety Six under Col. Anderson & Genl. Green does not recollect the name of the Captain, was thrown from his horse & had two ribs broke & was permitted to return home which is the reason he did not serve out the three months, being three weeks at home, which makes this tours service two months and eight days as a private.

In August 1781 he entered and served three months as a private under Genl. Pickens & Col. Anderson & was detached by Genl. Pickens on a scouting party as commander of eight or ten men. Served in this Tour three months and in this Tour he was at the second siege of Augusta.

In December 1781 he served by order of Genl. Pickens as commander of a scouting party of eight or ten men for one month as a private and marched through Abbeville and down through Edgefield District. Col. Anderson Commanded the Regiment.

In 1782 he served the whole year (except for a few times and for a few hours each time and once for two weeks when he was absent because his horse was stolen) say positive service Eleven months as a private soldier under Col. Armstrong & Genl. Pickens and was kept in command of a scouting party after the British and Tories & Indians but cannot recollect the particulars of this service further than the scouting aforesaid. For the service and for so much thereof as the Government thinks proper to allow his claim a pension, the time is so long passed that he cannot recollect events as particularly as he could wish, and it is possible that he even now has placed some tours after others that all could have been before them. Refers for other particulars to his original Declaration. He served with an embodied Corps called into service by Competent Authority, and was either in the field or in Garrison, and for the time during which the service was performed he was not employed in any civil pursuit. "Anderson's & three months interlined before signing."

On this 5th day of November in the year 1834 personally appeared Andrew Lee before me a Justice of the Inferior Court in and for said County, who being first duly sworn, according to law, doth on his oath make the following amendment to his former declaration dated the third day of September 1832 -- in order to obtain the benefit of an act of Congress passed the 7th of June 1832 -- (viz.) In the first Tour of duty as set forth in his Declaration, he lived at the time in Abbeville District in the State of South Carolina, which district joins Wilkes County in the State of Georgia and there being no volunteer Companies at the time in the district where he lived he went over into Wilkes County, and entered the service there, and served as stated in his said Declaration three months. In his last Tour of duty as set forth in his said declaration, he served as therein stated, for twelve months in actual service, as a volunteer horseman, during the time he was afraid to go home, he therefore continued to volunteer in the same Companies, as soon as his time expired -- he served a great deal more than the above but some of it was scouting after Tories, when he was not particularly attached to the Army, which he is advised to leave out, served in all fifteen months, and during which time he was either in the field or in Garrison, & for no part of said time was he engaged in any civil pursuit -- and for such service he claims a pension.

Sworn to & subscribed before me the day above written.

[p 15: There is a note that the application was rejected because the veteran... "did not serve 6 months in any regularly embodied corps."]
