State of Kentucky

Shelby County Sct [20 March 1833]

I William Morgan now a Citizen of the [undeciphered] County of Shelby do Swear that in the year 1777 I enlisted as a private soldier in the war of the revolution for and during the war, and that I served in Captain Holmes Minis's Company of the first Virginia Regment, for and during the war of the revolution, and was from said service discharged Honorably which discharge I have lost. I was for my services placed on the pension roll of the United State on the 3rd of August 1829 under the act of congress of Mar 15th 1828, that I never have received my bounty land due me from the State of Virginia, nor have I transfered my right thereto to any one that I am now in my 70th year of his age

William X Morgan

NOTE: A letter in the file states that Morgan was not on the pension roll on 15 Mar 1828, possibly having been stricken for having too much property to qualify under the act of 1820. He appears to have successfully applied under the act of 1828. On 17 May 1837 he made an application to transfer his pension from Indiana to Shelby County KY, which is misfiled with pension application S5782 of a different William Morgan. In the application, Morgan gave the following reason for moving to Kentucky: "I First resided in Kentucky when I obtained a pension certificate which I here with enclose then on the account of my children I was induced to remove to the State of Indiana thence Back to Kentucky where Expect to and Intend to Remain." On 20 Mar 1855 Morgan applied for bounty land.
