State of Georgia County of Pulaski: SS

On this the eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord 1833 personally appeared in open Court before Lott Warren Judge of the Superior Court of the County aforesaid now sitting James Oliver a resident of the 349th Company district in the said County of Pulaski & State of Georgia aged eighty-one years who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following further and amended declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832: —

That he was born in Darlington district in the State of South Carolina in the year 1752 & has no record of his age except a memorandum in a family Bible: -

That he served in the second or Colonel Moultrie's Regiment with the following Continental Regiments; the first or Colonel Pinckney's Regiment, the third or Colonel Thompson's Regiment, the fourth or Colonel Johnson's Regiment & the fifth Colonel Henderson's Regiment & that he does not remember any of the militia Regiments with which he served: –

That by reason of old age & the consequent loss of memory he cannot swear as to the precise time he enlisted in the Continental line of the Army of the revolution for the first term of his enlistment, but to the best of his recollection it was at the time of the first commencement of the war & must have been in the year 1775 or 1776 and that immediately after the expiration of the three years the term of his first enlistment as set forth in his declarations heretofore made and hereunto attached he enlisted for and during the war of the Revolution: —

That also by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory he cannot swear as to the precise length of his service but according to the best of his recollection he served not less than the periods mentioned below & for the following grades – for twelve months he served as a private soldier under the Captains Mason & Blake – for three as a Sergeant under Captain Dunbar to the time he was taken prisoner at the taking of Charleston & for 12 months as a private soldier with Captain Turner & for his service as a private soldier claims a pension:

That his declarations heretofore made & hereto attached are in substance true to the best of his recollection: that he has no documentary evidence to prove the truth of those declaration; that he is very poor old & infirm & far separated from the place of his enlistment & early home living in a sparse and thinly settled country & not in a situation to make the inquiry whether there be yet living any of the surviving soldiers of the Revolution who recollect his services: that all his Captains & other officers, his brother Thomas Oliver who enlisted about a year after his first enlistment, John Hines, Anthony Hines, James Clarke, Josiah Culp, Robert Coleman, and all those of whom he has any recollection of serving with are now an & have been (as he has heard & believes) long since deceased except William Jinkins and that he knows no one except the said William Jinkins by whom he can prove his first tour of enlistment & service and none whatsoever by whom he can prove his last enlistment & service for & during the War of the Revolution:

That since the war of the Revolution in Darlington District South Carolina near Camden in South Carolina, & in Washington & Pulaski counties in the state of Georgia & that there is no clergyman living in his district or immediate neighborhood.
