Southern Campaigns American Revolution Pension Statements and Rosters

Pension Application of Edward Gerrish S34897 MD
Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris. Revised 10 Aug 2015.

State of Maryland Cecil County ToWit.

Edward Gerrish, a Citizen of the United States of America, and at this time residing in Cecil County in the State of Maryland, Doth depose declare & say That he enlisted in June 1778 in Captain Henry Dobsons Company of Infantry, attached to the Sixth Regiment of the Maryland line, commanded by Col. [Otho Holland] Williams, that he continued in the said Company and Regiment until he was taken prisoner by the Enemy at the Battle of Camden in South Carolina [16 Aug 1780], from whence this Deponent was taken to Charleston, and then detained as a prisoner near a twelvemonth, when he was sent to James Town in Virginia and there exchanged, and was then attached to a Company of United States infantry commanded by Captain Pell in the said Sixth Regiment, in which he continued until the termination of the War, when he received an honorable discharge at Annapolis in the said State of Maryland from General [William] Smallwood, which said Discharge this Deponent hath long since lost or mislaid, and that this Deponent by reason of his extreme poverty and reduced circumstances needs the assistance of his Country for support, possessing no property of any kind whatsoever, and subsisting entirely upon the charity of others.

I certify that it appears by the Musters of Maryland Troops that Edward Garrish a private in Dobsons Company of the Sixth Reg't. Enlisted on 2nd June 1778 and was Discharged on 16th Aug't. 1780 Loockerman Aud. Gen'l.

Auditor's Office Annapolis 6th June 1818.

State of Maryland Cecil County SS.

Be it Remembered that on this 15th day of September in the year Eighteen hundred and eighteen personally appeared before the undersigned Chief Judges of the Second Judicial district of the State of Maryland, Nicholas Milburne [Nicholas Milburn, pension application S35003], a Citizen of the United States, at present residing in Cecil County aforesaid, and the said Nicholas being duly sworn upon the Holy Evangels of Almighty God doth depose, that he is well acquainted with Edward Gerrish, an applicant for a pension, that the said Edward enlisted in the Revolutionary Army of the United States in the month of June in the year 1778 in Captain Henry Dobsons Company of Infantry attached to the 6th Maryland Regiment commanded by Col. Williams, and that shortly after he enlisted he joined the main Army at a place called the Valley Forge in Chester County in the State of Pennsylvania, and continued in the said army until he was taken prisoner by the Enemy at the Hanging Rock in the state of South Carolina at Sumters Defeat [see endnote], and that he this Deponent served in the same Company & Regiment with the said Edward Gerrish, who in all respects served as a faithful Soldier from the time he entered the Service until he was taken prisoner: That this Deponent does not exactly recollect the time when he was discharged but believes it to have been about the end of the Summer of 1780. And that this Deponent knows the said Edward Gerrish to have been a Citizen of the United States residing in Cecil County from the time of his Birth up to this time; That the said Edward Gerrish is in very poor indigent circumstances and needs the assistance of his Country for support having no means of subsistence except from the Charity of his Friends and others.
