[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

The Commonwealth of Kentucky Floyd County

On this 21st day of July 1818, before me the subscriber, one of the Judges of the circuit court, in and for the state aforesaid, personally appeared Alexander Young aged 60 years; -- who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following statement and declaration, in order to obtain the provision made by the act of Congress, entitled "an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War;" that he is a citizen of the state of Kentucky, and resident in the County of Floyd; and that he enlisted for 15 months at Fort Charlotte in the state of South Carolina on or about the 1st day of March 1776 by one William Hutton and served in the company commanded by Capt. John Brown [?] of the 5th South Carolina Regulars commanded by Col. Isaac Huger sic Huger -- that he continued to serve in said corps, or in the service of the United States, in the Continental Army, against the common enemy, until about the first day of June 1777 -- when he was honorably discharged from service at Fort Charlotte -- in the state of South Carolina; that he was in service 15 months and was in the battles of Seneca under Col. Williamson -- also others not necessary to be related and that he is in reduced circumstances and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support, and that he has lost his discharge, and has no evidence in his power, of his service and discharge, other than that which is hereto transmitted.

Sworn to and declared before me the day and year aforesaid.

I, Benjamin Mills Judge, &c., as aforesaid, do he certify, that it appears to my satisfaction, that the said applicant Alexander Young did serve in the revolutionary war, as stated in the preceding declaration, against the common enemy, or the term of 9 months and upwards, on the Continental establishment; and I now transmit the proceedings and testimony taken and had before me, to the Secretary for the Department of War, pursuant to the directions of the aforementioned act of Congress -- and it further appears to my satisfaction that said applicant is in such indigent in reduced circumstances, as to require the aid of his country, pursuant to the above recited act.

Given under my hand the date first above written.

Floyd County, Kentucky January the 9th 1826

Dear Honorable Sir: I an old Revolutionary Soldier have undertaken to inform you of my Services During the old War. I was but a boy in the month of Oct. 1775 I entered into the service of the United States under the Command of Major Williamson near Ninety Six in South Carolina against the Tories on the 19th of November. We heard of a large body of Tories coming against us. We marched into an old field near the Town & made a kind of a pen of old rails around us. About 12 o'clock we were surrounded by a large body of Tories about 5 to one of us. We were about five hundred. At about 3 o'clock the battle commenced and we fought until Tuesday [?] evening without eating or drinking. When the enemy marched off & we marched out in the month of December. We marched over Saluda River where those Tories chiefly lived & was there reinforced by a formidable army under the Command of Col. Richardson from North Carolina [sic, South Carolina]. We defeated the Tories about the last of December [?] as near as I can recollect. We were then discharged & went home. In a few days after we were ordered out to Disarm all the Tories we could find. I was one sent on this Business until about the first of March 1776 when we rendezvoused at Fort Charlotte. I then enlisted in Continental Service under Capt. John Breve [?I think it is Brown] in 5th South Carolina Regiment commanded by Col. Isaac Huger for 15 months where I was stationed until sometime in June when Indians broke out. There was orders came to the Capt. to send a Lieut. & 22 volunteers to go against the Indians. I was one. We marched into the Cherokee Nation after being in three hard months. I received a shot by accident in my left hand which took my middle finger off close to my hand which very much disabled my hand & rendered me unable to do hard labor ever since. I then returned to Fort Charlotte and served out my time for which [I] enlisted & was honorably discharged on the 1st day of June 1777. As soon as I got home I found I could be of more service in the militia nor I could lying in a fort. I immediately entered into the service and not being well able to carry my gun on account of the lameness of my hand the General put me in riding express to all parts where it was necessary for me to go and to packing money from Charleston to the armies to pay off the expenses of the War but if I was not at this business & there was a call for men I was always one. I never stood a Draft but was a Volunteer through the whole of the war and never stayed at home when men was wanting. I was almost constantly in the service. When Charleston was taken by the British the Tories rose in thousands & many that had been with us turned against us and our communication was entirely cut off from the north as all on the north side of Saluda River was Tories led off by Cunningham. General Pickens did everything he could to [indecipherable word, looks like "Vais"] men but found it was out of his power. It was at last concluded to grain [ground?] their arms to the Tories which was done but there was a Capt. James McCall & myself that would not submit & some few more in all 25. We started about the last of June or in July 1780 & took the wilderness betwixt the whites & Indians. After traveling eight days hard riding, we got into Rutherford County in North Carolina & there Joined Col. Isaac Shelby from Houston [perhaps intended to refer to Holston River?] the same that has been Governor of this State. With him we remained till after Ferguson's Defeat on Kings Mountain. When he returned home I was almost two years. I never saw my own house. The Tories left me nothing but what they took & destroyed & my wife had to seek refuge amongst her neighbors but I stuck it out until we retook the Country & could sit down in peace &c. I never claimed nor received one cent for the wound I received in the Service until the law passed for the relief of the old Revolutioners [sic]. I proved up my services & was allowed pay until the act of the 1st of May 1820 then I was requested to render a Schedule of all my property which I did but was greatly deceived in the land I mentioned I had a bond for, not knowing how the lines run it was not worth half as much as I thought it was [he goes on to relate his loss of property as outlined above]

S/ Alexander Young

[Veteran was initially pensioned at the rate of $8 per month commencing July 21, 1818 for service as a private for 18 months in the South Carolina Continental line.]
