The aforesaid Patrick Connelly aged about sixty-one years, and resident in the district aforesaid personally appearing before me and being duly affirmed (he being conscientiously scrupulous of taking an oath) deposes and declares as follows: to wit, That in the spring of the year of seventeen hundred and seventy-seven, this affirmant enlisted in the army of the United States in Frederictown [Frederick] in the state of Maryland, in a company commanded by Capt Bailey [Mountjoy Bayly, pension application S12094] in the seventh Maryland regiment, for the term of three years; that this affirmant did serve out the term of his enlistment in the said regiment and was discharged therefrom in the spring of the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty; that some time after said discharge, this affirmant was enlisted by Captain William M. Kennan [sic: William McKennan W3104] of the Delaware regiment, at Christiana bridge in the state of Delaware, to serve during the war; that some short time after said last enlistment this affirmant joined the southern part of the Delaware regiment at Williamsburgh [sic: Williamsburg] in Virginia and thence marched to the siege of Cornwallis at York-town; that thence after the capitulation of Cornwallis [19 Oct 1781] this affirmant was marched to Philadelphia where he did military duty and was finally disbanded either at Philadelphia or Newcastle, at the end of the revolutionary war; that this affirmant was at the following general engagements or battles during the period of his military services as a private soldier in the revolutionary army towit, Brandywine [11 Sep 1777], Monmouth [28 Jun 1778], Mud fort [siege of Fort Mifflin on Mud Island, 10 Oct - 15 Nov 1777] and the seige of Cornwallis aforesaid; and this affirmant further declares, that by reason of his reduced circumstances in life he is in need of assistance from his country for support; and that from his bodily infirmity, he is not now capable of performing those services in his mechanical pursuit, which would secure to him, either a decent or comfortable subsistence; and further this affirmant saith not.

John Jackson [pension application S36021] aged fifty-six years in April next being sworn in due form of law deposes and declares, That the first knowledge which he obtained of Patrick Connolly was at Christiana bridge in the state of Delaware, when said Patrick was enlisted in the Delaware Regiment by Captain William McKennan; that this was, to the best of this deponent's knowledge in the forepart of the year 1781; that this deponent knew said Connolly after the seige of Cornwallis, when he came with a detachment of the Delaware regiment to Philadelphia; that said Connolly did duty as a soldier in the said Regiment to the end of the revolutionary war, and was mostly employed as a fugleman; and was finally disbanded at the close of the contest, at Newcastle; and that this deponent verily believes that the said Patrick Connolly, by reason of his reduced circumstances in life, is now in need of assistance from his country for support; and further this deponent saith not.
