

Southern Campaigns American Revolution Pension Statements and Rosters

Pension Application of Daniel Howe S7041

MD

Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris.

State of Pennsylvania }

County of Allegheny }

On this first day of March AD 1834 personally appeared before the subscriber a Justice of the peace in and for said County of Allegheny and state afforesaid Daniel Howe a resident of Deer Township in the County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania aged seventy years who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 that he enlisted in the army of the United States in Captain Nathaniel McGrady's Company, Colonel Moses Rollings [sic: Moses Rawlings VAS683] Regiment of the Maryland line in Prince Georges County in the State of Maryland April 1779 for three years and marched to fort Frederick; under said officers, afterwards marched to Pittsburgh under Captain N. McGrady, Josiah Tonehill [Josiah Tannehill W8777] and Adamson Tonehill [sic: Adamson Tannehill] and Majer Thomas Bell same year as a private Soldier and attached to General Broadheads [sic: Daniel Brodhead's] Continental Troops and served said comanders upwards of Ten Months and afterwards was attached to Captain Wm. Bells [William Bell's] company of Infantry and served under him at the Seige of Lord Cornwallis [at Yorktown VA, 28 Sep - 19 Oct 1781] and afterward his surrender was taken by General Guess [sic: Mordecai Gist] to the southard and put under General Green [sic: Nathanael Greene] and served under said General until the enlistment of three years was expired and in 1782 Enlisted under Major Oxborough [?: probably Alexander Roxburgh] in the round O of South Carolina for the term of three years now[?] in said Continental Army as a private soldier, and afterwards attached to captain Muses [Walker Muse's] Compay. Major Joseph Landervill, Batalion of the Maryland line and afterwards marched under Major Joseph Marbury to Pittsburgh and discharged under Captain David Lucket [possibly Lt. David Lockett BLWt1086-200] in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania in 1785, and that he left said discharge with Captain Richmond in the state House of Manoplis [sic: Annapolis], Maryland, and that he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or anuity except the present and that he declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of any agency of any state

Daniel hisXmark Howe

State of Pennsylvania }

County of Allegheny } SS.

On this first day of March AD 1834 personally appeared before the subscriber a Justice of the peace in and for said County of Allegheny and state afforesaid John Clevidence [W6689] a Revolutionary soldier, and resident of Pine Township and County afforesaid who being duly sworn according to law deposeseth and saith that he is personly acquainted with Daniel Howe a Revolutionary soldier and within applicant for pension, and that he first became acquainted with said Howe and Head quarters on the North River in the State of New York as a private soldier in Captain Walter Muses Company of the Maryland line in the year AD 1782 in the Continental Army and was personally acquainted with said Howe for nearly three years in the same Batalion with him until discharged in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania in the year one Thousand seven hundred and Eighty five by Captain David Luckets and that he beleived him to be an honest faithful soldier during said time.

John hisXmark Clevidence

State of Pennsylvania

County of Allegheny Ss.

On the fifteenth day of March A.D. 1834 Personally appered before the subscriber a Justice of the peace in and for said County of Allegheny and State aforesaid John Bell a revolutionary soldier, and a resident of Indiana township and County aforesaid who being duly sworn according to law deposeseth and saith that he is personally acquainted with Daniel How a revolutionary soldier and within applicant for pension and that he first became acquainted with said How at head quarters on the north River in the State of New York as a private soldier in Captain Walter Muses Company of the Maryland line in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty two in the Continental army, and was personally acquainted with said How in fort Pitt (now Pittsburgh) Pennsylvania under Captain David Lucket and that he the Said How was in the Battalion commanded by Major Joseph Lansville at headquarters Newburgh (West point North river) as aforesaid) and that he believed him to be an honest faithful soldier Sworn and subscribed the day and year aforesaid in open Court John Bell