[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of North Carolina, Buncombe County: SS

On this 3rd day of October one thousand Eight-hundred & forty three before me James Sharp one of the Acting Magistrates and a member of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions in & for the County & State aforesaid personally appeared Jacob Martin a resident of the County of Buncombe & State aforesaid aged Eighty four years who being first duly sworn according to Law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to attain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832 Granting pensions to Soldiers of the War of the Revolution.

That he lived in the County [of] Lincoln, North Carolina and was drafted into service from that County the first was a tour of three months under Captain Henry Whitener for which he was drafted & was placed under Captain McDowell [sic, Major Joseph McDowell] we were marched on to Monk's [sic, Moncks Corner?] in South Carolina where we spent some time & his term of service expired & which he thinks was in the year of Seventeen hundred & seventy nine.

The next was a Tour of six months he was drafted under Captain Whitener & was placed under Captain McDowell by order of General Rutherford [Griffith Rutherford] who had the Command the [forces] were marched on to South Carolina again with the intention of joining the Main Army and going against the British at Charleston, but before they reached Charleston they were met by the American Army who had been defeated at the Battle of Charleston [Charleston South Carolina fell to the British on May 12, 1780]¹ & they turned their Course towards North Carolina and was at the Battle at Ramsour's Mill [June 20, 1780]² against the Tories at which time Captain Falls [both Gilbraith Falls & William Falls died in the engagement at Ramseur's Mill] was killed which was in the year of seventeen hundred & Eighty sometime in the summer of that year & soon after which he was discharged from that Tour of duty – after having served six months.

The next and third Tour was for three months, he substituted himself in the place of Jacob Wetzel and was placed under Captain John Sigman, Colonel Cleveland [Benjamin Cleveland] and Campbell [William Campbell] & others he was scouting about in different parts of the Country & was in the Battle of Kings Mountain [October 7, 1780]³ which was the fall of the year of seventeen hundred & Eighty and soon after that Battle his time of service expired & he was discharged.

The fourth & last Tour was for three months he was drafted he was marched down to Fayetteville by order of General Rutherford & at the time they arrived at the aforesaid place peace was declared & they were soon discharged which was soon after the taking of Corn Wallis [sic, Cornwallis] at York Town in the year of seventeen hundred & Eighty one [Yorktown, October 19, 1781], which was the last of his service in the War of the Revolution.

He also declared that he has not seen either [sic] does he know of any documentary Evidence, in Support of his services that from old age and the loss of memory he cannot give all the particulars of his service that he knows and very well recollects that he served in all to fifteen months as set forth in the foregoing declaration. That he knows of no one now living that was in service with him.

He further declares that by reason of old age and bodily infirmity he is unable to go to the Court House to make his declaration. Furthermore I do hereby relinquish all and every claim to a pension or annuity except the present whatever and declare my name is not on the pension Roll of any State.

On this 27th day of April 1844 personally appeared before me James Sharpe, a Justice of the Peace in and for said County Jacob Martin a resident of the County and State aforesaid and made oath in due form of law to the following statements to wit: That he has lately applied for a pension on the account of his Revolutionary Services, and the reason why it does not appear that he has never before applied for a pension before this late date is as follows. That at the time others were applying affiant employed an Agent to obtain his pension and said Agent about this time was prosecuted by the Government for some violation of the pension law which was at the time said Agent had in his possession affiant's papers, that soon after those charges were settled with the government, affiant called on said Agent to know what was the result of his application and the Agent put affiant off from time to time and never gave any satisfaction as to what had been done or whether anything could be done, thus his claim has remained until this late day and would not have been prosecuted now but from actual necessity that affiant is old unable to work poor and destitute.

This affiant also states on his oath, that he knows of no person now living that was in the service with him that he has sent an Agent to Lincoln County in pursuit of evidence of his services, and what has been forwarded to the Department is the result of those researches for evidence.

This affiant further states that from old age and loss of memory he is not capable of giving a more minute history of his services that was given in his declaration further this affiant saith not.
