Southern Campaigns American Revolution Pension Statements & Rosters

Pension application of William Cox S8225 Transcribed by Will Graves f64NC fo rev'd 12/14/10 & 1/6/20

[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

Georgia Habersham County}

On this the 27th of November in the year of our Lord 1845 personally appeared before me Levi Jackson an acting Justice of the peace William Cox Senior a resident of the County of Habersham and State aforesaid of eighty-five years of age in March next ensuing to the best of his recollection, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following Statement and declaration in order to enable him to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed the Seventh of June 1832. That he entered the Service of the United States under the following named officers, and served as herein after stated. To the best of his recollection and belief at the present time Colonel Brickell and Major Brickell of the 5th Regiment and Captain Caswell's [William Caswell's] Company. I do not now recollect any other officers' name of the line. My present impression is that I entered the Service of the United States in the year 1776 about the middle of the month of April say the 15 or 16th and that I was discharged in October or November 1778 if I am not very much mistaken. I was not in any particular engagement or Battle and Served as a private only. I entered the Service in the Village of Halifax and County of the like or same name and State of North Carolina where I at that time resided. I served as a Substitute. We crossed the River Roanoke at the village of Halifax and passed down the River to the Mesherring [? Meherrin River?<sup>2</sup>]. The name of the Ferry not recollected. I do not now recollect the names of any other Company or Companies or Regiments save that of my own as before stated. We was on our way to Little York in the State of Virginia when I was discharged.

I have no documentary evidence by which I could establish my Claim, nor do I know of any other made of establishing by Claim other than my own Testimony.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State or (if any) only on that of the State aforesaid.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

William Coline

&lt;sup>2</sup> The suggestion that the word might be a reference to the Meherrin River, however, makes no sense because one would not pass 'down the Roanoke River' to reach the Meherrin without passing through the Albemarle Sound and then up the Chowan River to where the Meherrin empties into the Chowan.

[Helm Hunt and William B Shelton gave the standard supporting affidavit.] Interrogatories

4th To the fourth interrogatory – he answers – That he served as a Substitute. He does not now recollect his name – his Captain was Caswell – his Captain was his surety for his pay as Substitute

State of North Carolina, Office of Secretary of State
I William Hill, Secretary of State, in and for the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that it appears from the muster-rolls of the Continental line of this State in the Revolutionary War, that William Cox a private Soldier in Captain Caswell's [William Caswell's]
Company of the 5th Regiment, entered the service on the 16th day of April 1776 for the term of 2
1/2 years and that he was discharged on the 10th day of November 1778

Given under my hand this 10th day of March 1845 S/Wm Hill, Secretary of State

Georgia Habersham County: Before me Levi Jackson an acting Justice of the peace in and for the said State and County personally came William Cox Senior who after being duly sworn according to law declares that he had determined never to apply or trouble the Pension Office with his claim although he has frequently been urged to put in his Claim years ago. That determination would still have been pertinatiously [pertinaciously] addhered [adhered] to but for my feebleness, poverty and entire inability to support myself.

He also further declares that he does not know that there was any other person by the name of William Cox of the "5th Regiment of the North Carolina line in the Continental Army," nor does he believe that any person but himself belonged to the Army of that name in the State of North Carolina in is [sic, his] day and time – if there was, it never came within his knowledge.

He further declares that he does not know of any person now living with whom he served. The time has been so very long and he himself having left the State years after he was discharged.

He declares furthermore that if he has made, offered or tendered anything in his declaration not strictly true that tis an error of the Head and not of the Heart – for it could hardly be supposed that the memory could be so retentive as to "retain all things" for more than seventy years and not misapprehend many important events within that space of time.

There is nothing more that I am now in the possession of, which would be of value or throw light upon the subject to the Department.

Sworn to and subscribed this the 8th day of January 1846.

That at the time of his earliest recollection he was living in Halifax County North Carolina. That this was in time of the Revolutionary War. That his father Cary Cox and his brother William Cox were engaged in said war. That he has no recollection of the time when his father and said brother went into the service, but he remembers distinctly that his father got wounded and came home, and that then his mother talk a great deal about his said brother William who still remained in service after the return of his father as stated above, and he remembers his mother said that his said brother was fighting for liberty against the Tories and British. That he does not know what officers his said brother served under nor what time he went into service, but that he continued in service until peace was made. That he remembers clearly when his said brother came home, that he talked much about the hardships that he and his fellow soldiers had endured.

And deponent further states that about the year 1788 himself and his father's family moved from North Carolina to Edgefield District South Carolina that about two or three years after this his said brother William Cox also moved from North Carolina to said District South Carolina, where he lived a few years and moved to Pendleton District in said State, where he remained until about the year 1822 when he moved to Habersham County Georgia where he remained until his death which occurred on the 21st day of March 1844, as he has been credibly informed and verily believes.
