

- 1-Near Annapolis in the state of Maryland in the year 1747.
- 2-There is a record of my age in a family bible which belonged to my father and is now in possession of my brother who resides near Morgantown, Virginia.
- 3-When called into service I lived in Berekely County Virginia and moved from there about a year after the close of the Revolutionary War. Since I have lived several years near Hagerstown Maryland. About two years near Harpers Ferry. About 10 years on Cheat River. A short time near Gover Pennsylvania. About 15 years in Westmoreland County Pennsylvania, and about 14 years last past in Washington County in the state of Ohio.
- 4- I was drafted.
- 5- On the first tour there was no continental troops where I served and I do not recollect the names of the militia officers except the captain to whose company I belonged. On the second tour of duty after our arrival at Richmond, General Washington [p6] had the command of the main army. After our arrival near Yorktown, General Lafayette and General Wayne had each a command. The Pennsylvania troops were stationed the nearest to us at Yorktown. The Maryland troops were across the river from where we lay.
- 6- I have received two. The first was given by Captain Westell. The second by Captain McCormick both of which were destroyed by fire together with my house and sundry other property when I lived on Cheat River.

Monongalia County

On this 20th day of November 1840 before the subscriber a justice of the peace for the said county of Monongalia personally appeared John Floyd who on his oath declares that he is the same person who formerly belonged to the company commanded by Captains William Westel & William McCormick, regiment and colonel not recollected, in the service of the United States. That his name was placed on the pension roll of the state of Ohio from when he has lately removed. That he now resides in the state of Virginia where he intends to remain and whishes his pension to be there payable in the future. The following are his reasons for removing from the state of Ohio to the state of Virginia. Having lately lost his wife and being reduced to a state of indigence and not being able to labour by reason of old age and infirmity he accepted the friendly invitation of a brother and friends living in the state of Virginia who promised to aid in supporting him so long as he lived.

Virginia, Monongalia County, to wit:

Benjamin Satterfield personally appeared before me Robert McGee a justice of the peace for the said county and made oath that he was acquainted with John Floyd from childhood and during the continental war he was called out in the militia from the county of Berkeley in Virginia under the command of Captain William Westel. He marched from Berkeley to Petersburg in Virginia. From thence to Albemarle in Virginia. He also recollects that he also marched to Fauquier court house. After being absent some three or four months he returned home and was called the second time and was in the battle when Cornwallis was taken and he was absent three or four months the second time.
