NOTES:

Griffin apparently confused events at Rugeley's Mill, which is about 12 miles north of Camden SC and not on Deep River. On 4 Dec 1780 Lt. Col. William Washington led a detachment of Gen. Daniel Morgan's troops to Rugeley's Mill SC and captured 112 Tories using a fake cannon. Late that month the southern army went into winter quarters on Hicks Creek for about a month, and Griffin may have been discharged during that period.

On 21 Mar 1855 Lovena Ann Lecompte and Caleb Griffin, heirs of Nathan Griffin, assigned power of attorney to obtain any pension and bounty land due them.
