[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

S/ John Lindsey

[p 5: Printed form of Indent No. 1775 Book X dated March 4th, 1786 in the sum of £20.8.6 delivered to Mr. John Clark for services as a horseman and footman in Colonel Waters' Regiment]

[p 6: Reverse of the above indent bearing the signatures of John Clark, John Lindsey, Philip Hart]

[pp 8-12: Based on the similarity of the signature I believe this John Clark is the same man who filed a claim for a Mare lost in service together with the accoutrements of a saddle and bridle and other related items lost while in service. This claim resulted in the issuance of an Indent No. 1384 Book X in the amount of £2.17.7 ½ to compensate him for the loss of the horse. The documents in the file do not indicate how or when the horse was lost along with the accoutrements.

Two handwritten signatures in cursive script, both reading "John Clark". The first signature is on the left and the second is on the right. Both are written in dark ink.
